State Police Find $45,000 Worth of Marijuana Plants

Michigan State Police cut down a patch of 45 marijuana plants seven feet or higher on state land last weekend one mile north of Fletcher Road and four miles west of the Crawford-Kalkaska county line.

Small game hunters reported the patch to state police and there are no suspects yet. State police said the plants were well nourished and apparently someone was trucking water to the patch.

Homeowners Wake Up, Help Catch B & E Suspect

Two Grayling residents helped police catch a breaking and entering suspect after they woke up and spotted a man crawling across their bedroom floor. They fled their home, located just outside of the Grayling City limits and called police from a neighbor's house.

Sheriff deputies and Grayling City Police arrived about 1 a.m. Sept. 17 and found a suspect hiding a short distance from the home. Police also found several hundred dollars worth of property outside the house gathered by the robber.

Raymond Denno, of Grayling, was arraigned in 83rd District Court Tuesday, Sept. 20, on breaking and entering charges in connection with this case.

Local Business Puts Out Fire, Helps Clear Accident Scene

Jack Millikin, Inc. workers extinguished a fire at an accident scene Sept. 14 and then used their heavy equipment to help clear the roadway.

At about 1 p.m. last Wednesday Terry Johnson, 48, of Beaver Creek, was pulling a 24-foot trailer with his half-ton pickup when the weight of the trailer caused the pickup to lose control and roll over on North Down River Rd. near I-75. Jack Millikin workers used one of their fire extinguishers to put out a fire in the pickup engine at the accident scene.

North Down River Rd. was closed for 20 minutes and police said it would have been closed longer but Millikin workers used their equipment to help clear the accident scene. Johnson was taken to Mercy Hospital by sheriff deputies.

$12,000 in Goods Stolen In South Branch B & E

Frank Horuath, 30, of 9545 Stephan Bridge Rd. in South Branch, reported more than $12,000 in items stolen from a breaking and entering of his place between Sept. 15 and Sept. 16. A 1975 pickup, fishing boat and trailer, two 3-wheel ORVs, tools, long guns, bows, fishing equipment, snowshoes, and other items were taken. Police have no suspects yet and anyone with information can call the sheriff dept.

City Council Delays Decision on Rezoning

The Grayling City Council decided at their Monday, September 12th, meeting, to postpone making a decision on whether to grant or deny a rezoning request for Block 10 of Hadleys 2nd Addition.

The council asked Jerry Morford, City Manager, to engage the City's attorney, David Sabin, to look into several legal points presented by the property owner's attorney, Nelson Miles.

The rezoning issue has been placed on the agenda for the next City Council meeting on Monday, September 26.

Air National Guard To Drop Live 500-Pound Bombs

The Michigan Air National Guard will be dropping live 500-pound bombs on the Range 40 Complex during Sept. 26-29. The Range 40 Complex is located North of County Rd. 612, East of Guthrie Lake, South of Old State Rd. 618, and West of County Rd. F97 (Twin Bridge Rd.). The public is warned to stay out of this area.

Lehman Meeting Helps Establish Call-Alert System

By Irene Pettyjohn

Fifty-five residents of Maple Forest Township met at their township hall last Tuesday, September 13, to voice their concerns regarding the Camp Lehman 'walk-away' problem.

Representatives from the Michigan Department of Corrections included William Grant, Warden for the Camp Programs; Stan Adams, Regional Deputy Warden for Region II; John Wireman, Deputy in charge of Camp Lehman; Dallas Hudson, supervisor of Camp Lehman's public works program; Robert Gingerich, supervisor of Camp Lehman's work pass program; and F/Lt. Eric Rusak, Post Commander at the Grayford State Police Post.

These state officials had been invited by William Coy, Maple Forest Township Supervisor, to address the citizens' concerns regarding Camp Lehman's recent prisoner escapes, and to assist the township to set up a telephone alert system to notify residents in the event of an escape.

Warden Grant stated that Michigan's camp program houses approximately 3300 minimum security prisoners in 15 camps located throughout upper and lower Michigan. He said that another 6 or 7 new camps will be opening in the next 18 to 24 months.

Grant then opened the meeting to questions from the audience, and for the next 2½ hours the panel was pelted not only with questions about how the State operates its camp system, and why security measures are apparently not working, but also with accusations of duping the public, and being unconcerned for the welfare of public living around the camp facilities.

Camp security was a major concern, and questions ranged from why Camp Lehman was allowing prisoners to jog along county roads, to why there have been more escapes from Camp Lehman since the security fence was constructed than before its construction.

Wireman explained that the athletic director at Camp Lehman had instituted a jogging program for the inmates. He said that these inmates have entered some area 10-K and 20-K races. Jogging along the road was an incentive for inmates to join the jogging club. He said that prisoners jogged on the roadway for 3 or 4 days, but because of complaints from area residents, the jogging along the roads has been discontinued. Wireman stated that the joggers were always under supervision.

James Dasho disagreed with Wireman saying, "I have to contradict you," he said, "the first day I saw the three prisoners out jogging there was nobody with them. I wish I had had my camera."

ESCAPE PROBLEMS

Grant stated that "Individuals leaving confinement has been an age old problem. Once you begin to lock people up," he said, "people have a tendency to want to escape from that situation." He said that prisoners escape for a variety of reasons. Prisoners have escaped within 10 minutes before receiving parole. He said people have escaped who have served 25-30 years without a problem. Prisoners escape because of family problems, or because of a death in the family. Grant said that there are any number of reasons that go into why individuals "think with their feet."

The escape problems in the camp program became acute in 1985, when there were 286 escapes state-wide. Grant said that this was the year that a Jackson couple were killed by two escapees from a Jackson minimum security facility. Grant explained that legislators, receiving enormous pressure from their constituents, authorized $1,200,000 for the construction of fences to be built around all minimum security facilities.

Rezoning Approved For Former Rayburn Property

By Irene Pettyjohn

The Grayling Twp. Board has approved a rezoning request for Eugene Kraus, owner of Riverbend Estates, previously known as the Rayburn Estate.

A recommendation for rezoning submitted to the Grayling Twp. Board at their Sept. 13 meeting was made by the Grayling Twp. Planning Commission with the following conditions:

—That a performance bond be waived, as the funds will be placed in escrow with the Dept. of Commerce as required by the Condominium Act.

—That a grading plan be submitted upon request to the Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control official (Act 347) for Crawford County.

—That an affidavit of the building plans of the developer be submitted to the Twp. building dept.

—That the Twp. be supplied with a model selling agreement for lots in the subdivision which clearly gives notice to prospective purchasers stating that residential lots will be farther than 500 feet from a public street.

—That an affidavit from the developer be procured acknowledging that the developer, and his successors, assigns, agents, and employees will maintain the native protective strips and setbacks required in the AuSable Natural River Plan and Planned Unit Development portions of Grayling Twp. Ordinance 83-4.

—A minimum riverfront lot width of 150 feet will be accepted as long as an average lot width of 250 feet is established from a combination of 44 or less north and south riverfront lots.

—That approval or denial of the two single family cluster parcels be reserved for further consideration.

—And finally that the selling agreement for lots in the subdivision clearly gives notice to prospective purchasers that since 1948 Tank Range 30 (located North of North Down River Rd.) has been used every year for military training and will continue to be used as a Multi-Purpose Range Complex for training troops.

Kraus petitioned the Twp. on Aug. 10 to rezone the former Rayburn Estate from Deferred Development (DD) to Planned Unit Development (PUD).

Several citizens voiced concerns regarding the planned development.

Steve Jorgenson addressed his concerns regarding the development of wetlands on the property. He also requested an Environmental Impact Statement be ordered.

Detroit Pistons Basketball Clinic Tips off Sunday

The Grayling Youth Booster Club is sponsoring a Detroit Pistons Basketball Clinic on Sunday, September 25, 1988 at the Grayling High School Gym, from 2:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.

The Detroit Pistons' Vinnie "Microwave" Johnson, assistant Pistons Coach Dick Versace, and Detroit Pistons announcer George Blaha will be conducting this clinic.

In addition to free autographs, an autographed Pistons basketball as well as other Pistons memorabilia will be raffled. A concession stand will be available for snacks as well as souvenir Detroit Pistons pennants, and photo buttons with your picture taken with Vinnie Johnson, Dick Versace, or George Blaha.

Cost of attending this clinic is $4 per person, or $15 for a family of four or more. Tickets will be available at the door.

Ty McGregor and Dennis Kahn from Mio, Mark Church and Jason Konaczki from Roscommon, Bud Ostrowski and Kirk Annis from Grayling will assist Vinnie on the court while he conducts the clinic. Other varsity players from selected area high schools will also help.

After the clinic, there will be a cocktail hour at the Grayling Holiday Inn. This will be your chance to speak to Vinnie, Dick, and George in person. The afterglow will be from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The price is $5.00 per person to help cover the cost of snacks. There will be a cash bar.

The clinic is open to everyone in all age groups.

Summer of 1988: 2nd Hottest Here

By Jon Thompson

On hot summer days in California, Johnny Carson usually draws plenty of laughs during his monologue with silly replies to the audience's question, "How hot was it today?"

During the summer of '88 in northern Michigan, the heat wasn't a funny subject to many folks. The National Weather Service in Houghton Lake reported 1988 was the second hottest summer for this area in the last 50 years. According to their records for Houghton Lake dating back to the 1930's, only 1955 with an average daily temperature of 69.9 degrees Fahrenheit for June, July, and August was a hotter summer than 1988.

The summer of '88 had an average daily temperature of 68.3 for second place, 1952 had an average daily temperature of 68.1 for 3rd place, and 1987 had an average daily temperature of 68.0 for 4th place on the hottest summer list.

According to C.F. Fick weather records for Grayling published in the Avalanche the last 10 years, 1988 had far more hot days of 85 degrees or higher than any other year in the last decade. There were 50 days this summer with high temperatures at or above 85 degrees in Grayling.

The closest numbers to that in the last decade were 40 hot days in 1987 and 36 hot days in 1983. The average number of hot days for the last nine years was 23.5 a summer — less than half the total in 1988.

From May 22 to Aug. 18 this year, 50 out of 89 days had temperatures hitting 85 or higher. The hottest stretch in 1988 was July 3-9 when temperatures in Grayling hit 92, 96, 99, 101, 100, 103, and 99 before rain finally came.

Schools, City Help EPA Inform Public About Lead Dangers

Although their water systems have been tested as safe, a 1986 law has required the Crawford AuSable School District and City of Grayling to inform county residents of the dangers of lead in drinking water.

The school district had to post notices about lead in drinking water around every drinking foundation this fall. The city was forced to publish a large public notice three times in the Avalanche concerning lead in drinking water.

These notices were required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency even though there is no violation of national drinking water standards for lead in the city or school water system.

Testing by the Public Health Dept. on drinking water pumped by city and delivered to service connections at residences has found no detectable levels of lead.

"The city has never had a problem with lead," said Jerry Morford, City Manager.

Testing by the Public Health Dept. on water in school buildings last April also found no detectable levels of lead.

Bruce Reynolds, Supervisor of the District 1 Public Health Dept. covering Crawford County, said some people are unhappy about the EPA requirements. Forcing the public water suppliers to inform the public of the dangers of lead causes some misunderstanding, he said. Some residents get the idea there is a problem with lead in the local system.

Reynolds said the notices are just part of a national program to inform people about the dangers of lead in drinking water. He said

While all this heat was cooking Crawford County, the chef forgot to add water. The summer of '88 was the 3rd driest in the last 50 years according to the U.S. Weather Service in Houghton Lake. Houghton Lake received 7.84 inches of rain for June, July, and August. The lowest summer total is for 1966 with 4.61 inches and the 2nd lowest total was in 1983 with 6.24 inches.

The summer of 1988 was heading for the driest record early on until heavy rains came late in July and in August. An unusually dry May — Grayling records showed less than inch of rain falling — added to the drought conditions in June.

How hot was it? Ask someone from Crawford County in the middle of a February snowstorm. Then it might be a funny subject.

the following advice on the public notices are good for homeowners as well as public water suppliers:

Lead levels in your drinking water are likely to be highest:

—If your home or water system has lead pipes, or —If your home has copper pipes with lead solder, and —If the home is less than five years old, or —If you have soft or acidic water, or —If water sits in the pipes for several hours.

Whenever your water has not been used for several hours, be sure to flush your faucets typically for one or two minutes — until fresh water is evident, as indicated by its turning colder. This procedure will remove lead that may have dissolved from your pipes. While there is a difference of opinion among many experts regarding the use of hot water, it should be pointed out that some experts feel that there is an increased risk of lead exposure when using water from hot water systems that meet the criteria below. Some people prefer not to use hot water for cooking or drinking.

The Michigan Department of Public Health feels there is no reason for alarm or overreaction to the lead issue and that the simple yet effective flushing of the potable water lines routinely each morning will groups.

For additional information, call Mike Shearer at 348-2083.

Vinnie Johnson

As a Pro: Had probably his best season as a pro during the 1986-87 season when he was runner-up in the balloting for the NBA's Sixth Man Award...For most of the past three seasons, he has joined Durnars and Thomas in Coach Chuck Daly's three-guard rotation...Acquired by the Pistons on November 21, 1981 from the Seattle SuperSonics in exchange for Gregory Kessler... Had one strong season in Seattle in 1980-81 when he started 63 games as Gus Williams sat the year out...Was the NBA's top offensive rebounder in that season, averaging 2.4 offensive boards per game...

As a Collegian: Played at Baylor after transferring from McLennon Junior College in Waco, Texas after his sophomore season...

Was the Southwest Conference leading scorer his senior season, averaging 25.2 points per game...During his two-year stay at Baylor, he was named to the Associated Press' All-American Second Team twice and became the school's second all-time leading scorer...

Personal: Vinnie is the middle child of four brothers and three sisters...His younger brother Eric is in his senior season at Nebraska after transferring out of Baylor...Makes his year-round home in Southfield.

George Blaha

Veteran announcer George Blaha begins his 13th season as the "Voice of the Pistons", broadcasting all Pistons games either on radio or television.

Blaha will do 31 games on WKBD-TV 50, while he will handle the play-by-play on WWJ Radio (950 AM) for those games not televised by Channel 50. Blaha will handle all pre-season games in addition to all play-off games. Again this season, WKBD-TV 50 will be the Pistons' television flagship station, while WWJ-AM 950 will be the radio flagship.

Detroit born and Marshalltown (IA) and Grayling (MI) raised, Blaha attended Campion Jesuit HS in Prairie du Chien (WI). From there, Blaha went on to the University of Notre Dame and graduated with a BA in Economics. Blaha received his Master's Degree from the University of Michigan in Business Administration.

In broadcasting since 1969, Blaha has hosted two popular Detroit sportstalk shows. He was voted first-place honors nationally by UPI in 1981 in Las Vegas. George also is a familiar voice to college football fans, having been the voice of the Michigan State Spartans on WWJ since 1971. Blaha, who makes his year-round home in Bloomfield Hills, is on the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Detroit Youth Foundation, benefitting intercity youth.

Dick Versace

Dick Versace begins his third campaign as an assistant coach for the Pistons, but now moves up to the team's top assistant with added duties and responsibilities.

Versace will be on the Pistons' bench for every game with his duties now including practice and game coaching as well as scouting. For the previous two seasons, Versace was the Pistons' second assistant and did all of the advanced scouting of Pistons' opponents.

After eight successful seasons as the head coach at Bradley University, Versace was hired by Chuck Daly in August of 1986. He joined the Pistons after Bradley enjoyed its finest basketball campaign in the history of the school.

After his Bradley Brave team recorded a 32-3 record, including a record 22 consecutive wins, Versace was named the National Coach of the Year by the United States Basketball Writers' Association in 1986.

His Bradley teams advanced to postseason play on four occasions (1980 NCAA, 1982 NIT, 1985 NIT, 1986 NCAA) and won the National Invitational Tournament in 1982.

Versace, who was MVC and District V Coach of the Year in 1980, finished second nationally in both the UPI and the National Association of Basketball Coaches poll that year.

Versace is no stranger to this state, where he has spent part of his coaching career. After spending one season as an assistant at St. Louis University, he coached two seasons as an assistant at Michigan State University. In 1976, Versace became the head coach at Jackson Community College. In two seasons at Jackson Community College, his teams recorded a 47-13 mark and national prominence.

A 1964 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Versace immediately began his coaching career — in football — at the high school level. After a year, he then moved on to coaching basketball at all levels. Dick and his wife Joann reside in West Bloomfield.

Local Post Office Window Service Hours Restored

Post Office retail window service hours were expanded in Grayling on Sept. 10, according to Postmaster Kenneth Peck. The changes follow the announcement by Postmaster General Anthony M. Frank that the Postal Service will be able to restore service and still comply with Congressionally-ordered operating fund cuts of $160 million for 1988 and $270 million for 1989.

The Grayling office will be open 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Friday and will not close for lunch. On Saturday the window service hours will be 9 a.m. - 12 noon.

Rezoning Approved For Former Rayburn Property

Mike Boss, project engineer for Riverbend Estates, represented Kraus who could not be at the meeting and he assured Jorgenson that the wetlands would be considered during the development process.

The Township Board explained that they had contacted the Michigan Health Dept. and the DNR and both agencies stated an Environmental Impact Statement was not required at this time. These agencies said, if in the future they found something that needed more study, then they would request the study.

Dwight Hassan, representing the AuSable River Property Owners, stated their concern about allowing a PUD in the Greenbelt Zone. Hassan felt that this could open the Greenbelt Zone for future commercial development.

The Twp. Board suggested that the wording be examined carefully and possibly ask the Planning Commission to look into restricting PUD from the Greenbelt Zone. They also told Hassan he could petition for an interpretation of the PUD section of the ordinance or petition to have it eliminated from the 400-foot Greenbelt strip.

Bernard Fowler inquired whether the Riverbend association's by-laws and master deed protected the open areas against future development. The Twp. Board showed him these documents and assured him the open areas were protected.

Dave Weiss, representing the Michigan River Guides, cautioned the twp. to adhere to the Natural River Plan or they would be setting a dangerous precedence.

Following these comments, Ruth O'Mara made a motion to approve the petition for rezoning as recommended by the planning commission. Fred Blaauw seconded the motion. The rezoning was approved by a unanimous vote.

In other business the Grayling Twp. Board also accepted the Natural River Plan Ordinance as recommended by the Twp. Planning Commission. The Natural River Plan Ordinance will go into effect Oct. 22.

reasonably allow the public to avoid potential unnecessary exposure to drinking water contaminated with lead from the piping components.

Random sampling throughout the State by the Michigan Department of Public Health has confirmed the presence of lead in drinking water from certain piping systems where the water has remained stagnant for a period of time. Levels in excess of the current drinking water standard (0.050 parts per million) have been detected in some taps. Laboratory testing has shown that the principal sources of lead are lead piping and lead based solders and fluxes used to join copper piping. The plumbing industry and homeowners who may construct potable drinking water piping systems must no longer use lead based solders and fluxes for joining copper piping. Other solder materials or joining methods are available and must be used. Lead piping has not been allowed for new installations for about the last ten years. Building copper piping water systems constructed to date may contain lead based solder and flux.

Too much lead in the human body can cause serious damage to the brain, kidneys, nervous system, and red blood cells. The greatest risk, with short-term exposure, is to young children and pregnant women.

G.P.A. Leads Fall Decoration Campaign

For the fifth year the Grayling Promotional Association is sponsoring an effort to decorate the town for the fall and winter seasons. This year the G.P.A. encourages all businesses in Grayling to join them in decorating for the fall season. October 1st will find the Grayling business district with creepy bats, ugly witches and spooky black cats in many windows and pumpkins, colored leaves and cornstalks in doorways. Join the G.P.A. in their effort to make Grayling look festive this fall.

Want to make $450 and live longer too?

By this time next year, how would you like to have an extra $450, just to spend on something you would really like to have but today you cannot afford? Well, you can do that, and as an added side effect, you can increase your chances of living to a ripe old age. How? By stopping smoking.

The Grayling Community Education Program is sponsoring another Stop Smoking Seminar on Monday evening, September 26 at Grayling High School. Cost of the clinic is just $45. Expensive? Maybe. But not if you are going to save about $450 a year and live longer too. To find out more about how you can stop smoking, call your Community School Office at 348-7641 any evening between 6:00 and 9:00 p.m. A weight loss seminar is also being offered on the same evening. Don't put it off another minute. Call your Community School Office this evening and pre-register.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Honors Eddy

The V.F.W. Auxiliary held their monthly meeting at the Chaparral Ranch making plans for a Halloween party and another Hunter's dinner.

The Auxiliary will have the new cancer pins to sell at a dollar each. Mary K. Barclay is in charge of this project. Contact any V.F.W. member for your pin. Martha MacDonald has become a new member and Adel has returned after an absence due to illness. The raffle drawing was held for the afghan and Loa Overy was the lucky winner.

The Auxiliary is invited to attend the men's meeting October 6 at 6 p.m. for a pot-luck dinner and open discussion on future plans, bring a dish to pass. Our charter was draped in memory of past president Bethel Eddy who passed away August 7, 1988.

Hunter Safety Course Offered

There will be a Hunter Safety course offered at the Grayling Sportsman's Club on the following Tuesday nights: September 27, October 4 and October 11. The class will run from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. on those nights. A Range Day will also be scheduled at a later date. The class will be open to the first 30 persons, age 12 to 17 who sign up by calling the Grayling DNR Field Office at 348-6371.

Entire GHS Football Team Deserves Credit

My hats off to all of you men and women who participate in Grayling's athletic programs from the cheerleaders to the players. The scoreboard doesn't always show what winners you really are.

You men of the football team deserve a great deal of credit, not just the few first string players who play the entire game, both offense and defense, who take a beating for the entire four quarters, but to you side line troops who faithfully show up for practice day after day and never get a chance to play.

You juniors and seniors who have paid your dues but are benched for sophomores have earned the right to play no matter what your skill level is. I do not want to take anything away from some very skilled sophomores, what I am saying is that with teams of our size everyone should play in every game. Each of you through your dedication to practice has earned the right to play. There shouldn't be a clean uniform at the end of any game.

Our football coaches have lost sight of the fact that a winning team is not just reflected on the scoreboard. They fail to give you credit. You are smart and have the capabilities to do much more than they allow you to do. No one, not even the pro's can take a beating for four quarters and still perform at their peak. So far we have heard that bad exchanges between center and quarter back, bad blocking, running, etc. have all led to losses — everything but bad coaching. It does not take a mental wizard to defend against a team that runs play after play up the middle with no variety or imagination. We have talent but it's wasted trying to play big city football.

You coaches need to stop and think about what your real goal in athletics is. The objective is to win but your goal is to develop self esteem, self confidence, good sportsmanship and a team concept which a student can take with him throughout life. What kind of message are you sending to the students and parents when you leave them on the bench until the last few minutes of a game that is out of reach.

You build strength and depth through experience and you only gain that by playing in games. If you have a strong team, replacing one or two players at a time will not weaken your team. The strong players will pick up the slack and the weak players will become stronger.

It's easy to keep going when the score is always in your favor, but to keep going when the chips are down shows that you are truly winners.

Seeking Descendants Of American Revolution

To the Editor:

On behalf of Fabiano Brothers, Inc., I would like to personally thank all the volunteers who worked very hard to make the Seventh Annual Budweiser/MDA Golf Tournament at the Grayling Country Club the success that it was. Many people put forth a great deal of time and energy, not only on the day of the tournament, but also in the many weeks preceding the event.

We had 161 golfers participate in this charitable outing and over $2,700.00 was donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. This year's event was a huge success due to the fact that peo-

Race shaping up as expected

WITH LESS than two months to go before the people of America select the next leader of the free world, the race for president is shaping up pretty much as expected — close.

First, Gov. Michael Dukakis surged out ahead in the polls and among the media pundits, largely on the basis of prolonged national exposure from the Democratic convention. Republican doomsayers were predicting the race was all over.

But then, Vice President George Bush was the beneficiary of focused national attention at the Republican convention, and Mr. Bush galloped to the forefront in the national polls. Democratic doomsayers had their turn to predict oblivion for their party's champions.

The truth probably lies somewhere in between — where truth so often is found in matters political.

Mr. Bush was not finished when Mr. Dukakis led in the polls, nor was Mr. Dukakis finished by the Bush surge in the polls. They are both very much alive, and will be right down to the wire on election day.

IN TRUTH, it appears to be a very close race. Polling remains an inexact exercise, despite continuing improvements to make the results accurate. But it's the only way there is to measure what's going on in the minds of the voters.

Probably the ups and downs in the polls reflect the indecisiveness of the voter, and the rather shallow support the voter holds for either of the candidates. That means that on any particular day, either candidate could be out in front.

There is much truth to the banality expressed by every political candidate in every race across the country who finds himself/herself behind in a pre-election poll:

The only poll that really counts is the one on election day. It's true, ... but true.

NOW THE CANDIDATES have settled on a debate package. Mr. Bush and Mr. Dukakis will debate twice, and their running mates will debate once. That's fewer debates than Mr. Dukakis favored, and more than Mr. Bush really wanted.

Actually, "debate" is not descriptive of what happens at these confrontations, which have wheedled their way into modern political lore. They are, instead, a joint appearance and not a debate.

The purpose is not to score points in logic and reason, but to create an impression and make a few headlines. Sometimes the impressions that emerges from these joint appearances is positive, sometimes negative.

Usually more heat than light comes out of these "debates," and the candidate who gains is the one who makes the less serious blunders. But given today's technology, the campaign "debates" have become the best way yet devised to look at the candidates, side by side.

And the debates do attract attention that surpasses what either candidate can draw on his own. It takes a heap of speechifying and hand-shaking out on the campaign trail to reach even a fraction of the millions who will watch the televised "debates."

That's why they're important.

COMPLETELY USELESS is the vice presidential debate, which must be strictly for entertainment and not for education. When you come right down to rock bottom, who is going to vote for a vice presidential candidate, anyway, except maybe their family?

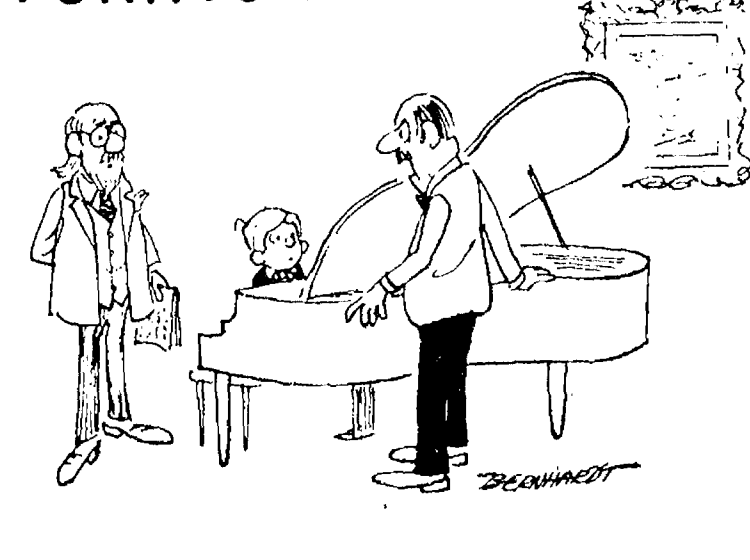

The impressions made by the vice presidential candidates are primarily for future reference only, and tend only to reinforce voter decisions on the top of the ticket.

It should be interesting, however, to see Sen. Lloyd Bentsen and Sen. Dan Quayle on the same podium, in the campaign "debate" format.

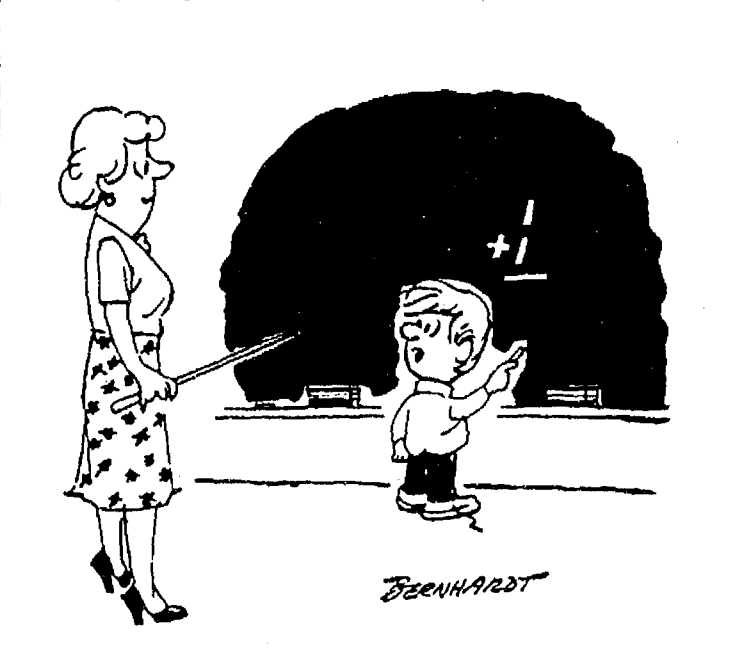

On substantive matters, their records in the senate seem to indicate agreement on many points, and their personal backgrounds — although separated by a generation or more — are somewhat similar, too.

The revealing part of the vice-presidential "debate" will be to see what the two senators find to argue about.

Northern Views

By Jon Thompson
Avalanche Editor

The summer of 1988 started out so hot and dry, it was a bit scary.

Is this it? Is the climate changing? Articles on the Greenhouse Effect began appearing quite often in the daily newspapers.

Northern Michigan doesn't usually suffer too much from drought. But after the heat and lack of rain in May, June, and the first part of July, even northern Michigan residents could easily understand how devastating a drought could be.

Could you imagine our water wonderland after five more years of drought conditions similar to the early summer of 1988?

Would shallow wells go dry? Would large tracts of jack pine forests be burnt to the ground?

How far would our rivers and lakes dwindle?

Some climate theories predict northern Michigan will someday be as warm as Florida. During winter time here many residents wouldn't consider that a terrible change.

But what if the Greenhouse Effect warmed our climate and dried out our area weather — making northern Michigan more like a desert?

I, for one, like our four-season climate just the way it is. When the rainy weather came at the end of July and in early August, I was relieved. When the final figures were added and the U.S. Weather Service said the 1988 summer wasn't even the hottest or driest in the last 50 years, I felt a lot better. Instead of a start of a big change in climate, the early summer drought of 1988 could just be some more crazy Michigan weather — unpredictable but within the normal climate range of our area over the last few decades.

In a world that already changes too much, I want our climate to remain generally the same as it has over the last several hundred years. I want the stability and almost certainty that comes with each passing of a season.

For centuries in this area nature's clockwork has pushed the delicate birdfoot violet up through the ground each spring. The winter melt-off and April rains dampen the sandy soil and the May sunshine brings the flower to blossom, usually close to the same day or week each year.

On June late afternoons the brown thrasher has probably entertained generations of Crawford County residents with his special song.

Come late September and October the tamaracks are certain to turn golden and the geese can be heard high overhead winging south.

Rip Van Winkle couldn't tell what year it was but he could tell what season it is.

What else do we have in our lives that has so much certainty? Great buildings, governments, countries, and people may fall, change, tumble to the ground. But the seasons go on. I hope that is never taken away from us.

Auto Brokering Ban Amendment Opposed By Business Coalition

A coalition of businesses has joined together to oppose an amendment to a bill in the Senate Commerce and Technology committee that would make auto brokering illegal.

But an aide to the committee's chair said that amendment will likely be removed before the bill is reported to the Senate.

The coalition said if the amendment remains on the bill, 140 licensed auto brokers in the state will be out of business and tent sales similar to those offered by credit unions will no longer be held.

Tent sales allow credit union members to purchase cars from rental car companies. A previous effort by auto dealers to eliminate competitive buying services, such as tent sales, was thwarted in 1986 when similar legislation failed to pass the Legislature.

The coalition opposes the amendment because "it is anti-consumer legislation which eliminates the possibility of additional sales competition and restricts free enterprise," said Armando R. Cavazos, spokesperson for the coalition which includes AAA Michigan, American Automobile Brokers, Inc., Amway Corporation/Amway Auto Network, Car and Truck Rental and Leasing Association of Michigan, Michigan Credit Union League, and the Teachers Auto Club.

An auto broker is an individual or organization that makes an arrangement between an auto dealer and a purchaser. Mr. Cavazos said brokers not only provide freedom of choice, but "offer a good price that often saves the consumer money, a buying service that saves time and aggravation."

But Barry McGuire, executive vice-president of Michigan Automobile Dealers Association, said, "We think the whole brokering system is a poor way of doing business. It (brokering) is anti-consumer, because the broker's money is not coming from the dealers' pocket, it isn't coming from the manufacturers' pocket, it's coming out of the buyers' pocket."

Frank Cusmano, legislative aide to Sen. Richard Posthumus (R-Lowell), chair of the Senate Commerce and Technology Committee, said the amendment will be stricken when the bill is taken up in committee, tentatively next week.

Cusmano said Posthumus is "philosophically opposed" to the amendment because it restricts free market trade and hurts consumers.

"I imagine the bill will come out of committee without the amendment, but the auto dealers will use their clout and fight to put it back on the Senate floor," Cusmano said. He said if the bill is not taken up next week in committee, it will be addressed sometime before the Legislature adjourns in December.

The bill (HB 4390) was originally drafted to upgrade the punishment for odometer tampering from a misdemeanor to a felony, and the House unanimously passed it in May 1987.

The brokering ban amendment was added by the Senate State Affairs, Tourism and Transportation Committee before it sent the bill to the Commerce and Technology Committee.

STATE POPULATION FIGURES SHOW STRONG GROWTH

Governor James J. Blanchard recently reported that Michigan is experiencing a population growth and a plus in-migration growth.

He said new U.S. Census Bureau figures show the state's population grew by 61,000 residents in 1987, ranking the state 10th in total population among the 50 states. Further, the numbers showed 1,300 more people moved into the state than moved out, marking the first time in nearly two decades that in-migration exceeded out-migration.

The state's 1987 population was 9,199,871. The 61,000 gain was the best in the Midwest and Northeast. Nationally, the increase was exceeded only by California, Florida, Georgia, Virginia, Arizona, Texas, North Carolina, Washington and Maryland.

The governor said the growth is widespread throughout the state. In 1987, 42 counties grew at rates faster than the national average.

Five metropolitan areas — Ann Arbor, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Kalamazoo and Lansing — experienced faster growth than the national rate.

In non-metropolitan areas, those with the highest population growth rates were the areas around Traverse City, Roscommon and Ogemaw counties.

Based on current data, the governor said, demographers at the Department of Management and Budget expect continued strong growth throughout 1988.

... about your Social Security

Work Estimates Should Be Reported

People getting Social Security benefits, and who work and earn more than the annual exempt amount, are required to estimate their earnings as accurately as possible, and to report the amount to the Social Security Administration.

Further, people should revise these estimates during the course of the year if necessary.

Excess earnings, which were not estimated accurately in advance, are the primary cause of Social Security overpayments. In 1987, more than one million people were paid incorrectly because they underestimated or failed to report excess earnings. By excess earnings, I mean earnings that are above the annual exempt amount. The exempt amounts for 1988 are $6,120 for people under 65 all year, and $8,400 for people 65 through 69 all year. There is no limit on earnings after age 70.

A special monthly rule is applied for the first year one receives Social Security benefits. This allows the person to receive benefits for the months after retirement, even if he/she has already exceeded the annual exempt amount prior to retiring.

Anyone who has earned over the exempt amount is required to file an annual report of earnings by April 15 of the following year. This report is required even for those who retired during the year, and did not work after beginning to receive Social Security benefits. For example, a person is age 62 in September, retires from work on September 30, and begins receiving Social Security benefits as of October, 1988. If he/she had earnings of more than $6,120 in 1988, but will not work October-December, 1988, then benefits are due for October-December. But the annual report must still be filed by April 15 of the following year.

After the first year of receiving benefits, excess earnings above the exempt amount are adjusted for by withholding $1 in benefits for each $2 above the limit. If earnings are estimated accurately, the adjustment is made during the year, while the person is working. Any further needed adjustment is made when the annual report is filed. Social Security will refund any benefits withheld that are actually due, and will recover any benefits overpaid, either through refund or by withholding future benefits.

These earnings limits do not apply to disability benefits. Special rules apply to disabled people who work. For more information on the earnings limits, or on work incentives for disabled people, contact the Social Security office.

The Traverse City office is located at 1111 E. Front St., and the telephone number is (616) 946-8360. Most business can be handled by phone. Hours are 9:00-4:30, Monday through Friday.

A representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month, from 10:30 a.m. until 2:00 p.m.

AARP Meets September 26

RSVP Volunteer Salute

Overdue is recognition of the service Phyllis Brummer has rendered to the Senior Volunteer Program in the Grayling area. The Lake Margrethe resident has done yeoman service for the seniors of the Grayling area.

Brummer has been instrumental in getting a federal grant for the adult Literacy Program to enlarge the scope of these teachers to develop the reading skills of those unable to read the printed word. When Brummer began the program, she had just two students and she was the lone teacher. With the grant, other teachers have been added and many more are enrolled in the program.

Brummer came to the RSVP and its volunteer programs upon her retirement from Michigan State University, where she was employed for 22 years as an Administrative assistant.

In addition to her favorite program, Brummer has contributed to RSVP transporting seniors on necessary trips, worked on the "Meals on Wheels" program and used her specialized professional skills in the RSVP Grayling office.

Charles, her husband of 26 years, has been a supporter of her contributions to the community. They have three children and three grandchildren cheering and encouraging Brummer in her endeavors.

Brummer's other continuing obsession is collecting recipes. Currently, she has about 200 cookbooks in her collection, plus uncounted miscellaneous recipes stashed about the nooks and crannies of her home, to which she refers when filling up her weekly "Recipes" column in the Grayling Avalanche.

When not involved with the preparation of her "Recipe" column, Brummer may be found immersed in a good book or listening to some good musical score.

Another activity which captures her interest is watching the antics of the wildlife bounding around her Lake Margrethe residence which is her reward for feeding same. There is one favorite Mute Swan which has become attached to Brummer. This particular swan comes up to the Brummer home daily for the specially prepared peanut butter sandwich made for him, indicative of the charming personality which flows from Phyllis Brummer.

Helsel Appointed To SADD State Board

By Nancy Lemmen

Grayling High School senior Janice Helsel has been appointed to Michigan's SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk) 1988-89 six-member Student Advisory Board. She joins the board with students from Auburn Hills, Berkley, Farmington, Madison Heights and Vermontville.

Janice comes to the advisory board "with strong leadership and great enthusiasm for the coming year," states the Fall edition of the Michigan Connection, SADD's quarterly newsletter. Some of her many accomplishments include helping to start the GHS chapter of SADD, chairing the 1987-88 Homecoming parade committee, serving six years on the Student Council and attending Girls' State last summer.

She says that she saw an article in last spring's SADD newsletter announcing an opening on the Student Advisory Board and decided to apply. Janice wrote a summary of her participation in the local SADD chapter and explained why she should be selected as a board member. GHS counselor Vickie Green added a letter of recommendation. Green wrote in part, "Her personality allows her to communicate and develop friendships with many diverse types of people, an especially important trait for leaders."

The advisory board, which meets once a month in Birmingham, is planning the annual state conference, to be held at Shanty Creek Resort in Bellaire on November 12-14. Janice says that board members will also meet individually with Gov. James Blanchard to discuss their plans for SADD.

Janice, currently the local SADD president, would like to see more acceptance of the organization by both parents and teens, thus building greater community support for its programs and activities.

ON STATE SADD BOARD — GHS Senior Janice Helsel was selected to serve on Michigan's six-member Student Advisory Board of SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk).

In Memory of Letha Humphrey Rose

Died Sept. 21, 1987
You've been gone for one long year, seems more like six or seven. You left us one dreary morn, to be with God in Heaven.

Just to kiss you on the cheek, or hold you very tight. You had a way with all of us, when things didn't seem just right.

Your house seems to cry at night, weeping with despair. And the table in your kitchen guards your lonely empty chair.

We hope you're happy, Mother dear. You aren't so far away. And each and everyone of us will be seeing you some day.

Sadly missed by your eight children: Janet, Karen, Judy, Aneta, Donald, Jean Anne, Jimmy, and Wayne, Jr.

Public Notice

Applications for the Grayling Rotary College Scholarships are available at Grayling High School counseling office. Applicants must have completed one year of college to be eligible. Applications must be postmarked by October 14th, 1988.

On Thursday evening, September 22, the Grayling Community Education Program will present their first travelogue of the season, an exciting full color documentary of the country of Germany. The film will be presented at the Grayling High School Auditorium. Doors will open at 6:45 p.m. and the travelogue will begin promptly at 7:30. Both single admission tickets and the money saving Passports to Adventure will be available at the door.

Germany is a land of Alpine mountains and lakes, historic cities, fairy tale castles, festivals and fabulous treasures of art and architecture. On Thursday evening's journey by film you will experience university and city life in Heidelberg. You'll visit the castle and Hauptstrasse along the Neckar River. You'll follow the Romantic Road into Bavaria through lovely medieval cities like Rothenburg where the Tower, Town Hall, Main Square all harken to a rich past. In St. James Church you'll see the famous woodcarvings by 15th century artist Reimenschneider. You'll see the glorious Neuschwanstein Castle, a tribute to Richard Wagner's operas and built by King Ludwig II of Bavaria. You'll ride the cog-train up to the Zugspitze for a look at Germany's highest mountain peak.

In Mittenwald, you'll visit the shop of a master violin maker. In Berchtesgaden you'll take a launch trip to St. Bartholoma, a chapel in the middle of the lake. At Kelstein you'll journey up to the Eagle's Nest, Hitler's hideout during World War II.

Munich means fun, with its open air market, Nymphenburg Castle and English Garden. Also while on this exciting tour, you'll visit Berlin and the Black Forest. Don't miss this exciting beginning to Grayling's 16th travelogue series.

RIVER RESTAURANT is just one of the many places to be visited on Thursday night's film tour of the country of Germany to be presented in Grayling's Joseph Stripe Auditorium.

Crawford County Community Services Needs Extra Help

Grayling Business and Professional Women who sponsor the Crawford County Community Services for the needy at Christmas is in much need of support this year.

In past years this service has been funded from FIMA and other generous donations from Service Clubs and friends in the Community.

Unfortunately this year they are not going to receive any monies from FIMA to support this project.

BPW will need your support to help furnish Christmas Baskets and new toys for 150 to 200 needy families in our community. They need donations for food by the end of October and new toy donations for the needy children by December 1st.

All donations are Tax Deductible. For further information or any donations please contact: Bernita Sieger, Rt. 2, Box 2418, Grayling, 348-9541 (after 5:30 please) or Hertha Laupmanis, P.O. Box 342, Grayling, 348-7611.

Library News

The summer reading and activities program for the Frederic Community Library is over for 1988.

Sixty two children took part in the activity program, which consisted of:

First meeting: Party and sign up.

Second meeting: Community projects, the children planted flowers in the park, by the fire hall, township hall and library.

Third meeting: Made bird houses from milk cartons and also made cootie catchers, etc. by doing origami.

Fourth meeting: Played games in the park, had races and won McDonald's of Grayling certificates as prizes.

Fifth meeting: Went to the Sportsman's Dam for a nature hike, identified wild flowers and birds, had a picnic and went swimming.

Sixth meeting: Kathy Black put on a puppet show, the kids tried their hand at it and made puppets to take home.

Finally, on the seventh meeting, the children went to the Sportsman's Dam for another picnic. Activity leaders were Kathy Black, Merna Newberry and Mari-Ellen Berglund.

Thirty-two children signed up for the reading program. We had a ladder of accomplishment and each time a child completed five books their name was raised a rung on the ladder. Nineteen children read ten or more books. Sarah Kaiser and Angie Case completed the top rung with thirty books. On August 31, we showed a Popeye movie, had a treat and awarded books.

The Workers In Frederic donated films.

Accident Knocks Grayling from Unbeaten Mark

The Varsity girls basketball team suffered their first defeat of the season Saturday night, September 17, losing to Sault Ste. Marie on their home court, 46-34.

The girls again opened the game with an excellent first quarter, leading the Soo 14-4. It looked as though the team was on its way to their fourth consecutive win, when midway through the second quarter Patti Tremblay was injured.

The injury occurred during a pressure type defense when Tremblay caught an elbow in the face. The blow caused a cut that required three stitches to close. Tremblay left the game and was taken to Mercy Hospital for emergency treatment. She was unable to return to the game.

"From that point," said Howard Lehti, head coach, "Grayling played helter-skelter basketball."

By halftime the score was 21-19 Sault Ste. Marie.

Lehti said that it was psychologically draining to see one of his starters be removed from the ball game, and the affects showed on the entire team.

"We did not give up," said Lehti, "and we didn't throw in the sponge. With two minutes to go in the ball game, we were only 8 points behind." Lehti said that translating that into baskets, 4 buckets behind with two minutes to play was not bad.

"We still felt we could win the game at that point," he said. "But the breaks didn't present themselves, and we did not make our own breaks, and we eventually went on to lose the game, 46-34."

High scorer for the game was Melanie Ojala with 16 points, her best performance of the year. Lehti said that she had six field goals and was 4 for 4 from the free-throw line.

Other points were scored by: Lori Gust 7, AJ Pratt 4, Heather Stephenson 3, and Patti Tremblay and Nikki Trenary with 2 points each.

Lehti pointed out that even though Lori Gust only scored seven points in the game, she played the best four quarters of her GHS career. She was credited with 16 rebounds.

"Lori did her part to pick up the team when Tremblay was injured," Lehti stated, "and we need those kinds of performances."

The team was 8 for 15 from the foul-line. Lehti said that the team's goal is to improve their last year's 47% at the foul-line to 60% this year.

On Tuesday night, September 13, the Varsity squad defeated Houghton Lake at Houghton Lake with a score of 52-45.

The Grayling team led the scoring throughout the game.

High scorers for the night were AJ Pratt and Lori Gust with 14 points each.

Other points were scored by Deanna Phelps 10, Patti Tremblay 5, Nikki Trenary 4, Heather Stephenson 3, and Melanie Ojala 2.

Grayling played Charlevoix at home Tuesday night and will travel to Roscommon Thursday, September 22.

The Junior Varsity girls basketball team lost Saturday, September 17 to Sault Ste. Marie 46-22.

Coach Dallas Hudson said that his team played a "super" first half, leading at the end of the first quarter 8-4 and tying the score 16-16 at the half.

The team's problems, according to Hudson, occurred in the second half of the game, when the girls failed to play as a team.

High scorer for the evening was Claudine Allen with 8 points.

Allen has been the team's consistent high scorer during all four games this season.

Other points were scored by Nichole Morrill and Krista Wyman with 4 points each, and Lisa Jo Barber, Michelle Burcham and Shannon Hinds with 2 points each.

Tuesday night, September 12, the J.V. squad defeated Houghton Lake with a 51-34 final score.

Hudson attributed the team's victory to their excellent rebounding effort and the fact that they played together as a team.

High scorer once again was Claudine Allen with 16 points.

Other players who scored were: Michelle Burcham and Nichole Morrill with 12 points each, Shannon Hinds 7, Lisa Jo Barber and Michelle Parker both with 2 points.

The J.V.'s lost their first two games: Roscommon 42-39 and Rogers City 37-27.

Hudson said that the J.V. team was both young and inexperienced. Each time they play and practice together as a team, he explained, they develop as a team.

"What they need most at this time," Hudson stated,

"is floor experience." He said that the team is developing a winning attitude, which they will take with them to the varsity team.

Did you know the 1987-88 National Basketball Association season was the first one ever to last through all 4 seasons of the year - autumn, winter, spring and summer?...The '87-88 NBA season started in autumn of 1987, continued through winter and spring and didn't end until the final playoff game between Los Angeles and Detroit on June 21, 1988, which was the first day of summer.

One of the most amazing coincidences in golf history happened at the Blowing Rock Country Club in North Carolina in 1979. On one day, golfers in 3 consecutive groups scored a hole-in-one on the 156-yard par-3 seventh hole. What are the odds on that?

Cheboygan Beats Vikes 41-14

The Grayling Vikings fell to an overpowering Cheboygan team at home Friday night, September 15 by the score of 41-14.

Cheboygan took the lead with three touchdowns in the first quarter. They played good defense, and scored once more in the second quarter to take a halftime lead of 28-0.

The Cheboygan Chiefs added touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters.

Grayling scored in the third quarter on a 3 yard run by Rusty Argue. The two point conversion was run in by John Lamie. Third quarter score was 34-8, Cheboygan.

Argue's 12 yard in the fourth quarter ended Grayling's scoring for the game.

Don Stowers, Varsity head coach, commented on the Viking's three losses this season, pointed out that Lake City has lost only one game in two seasons, Cheboygan has not lost in two years and Roscommon hasn't lost many. He said that Grayling has been up against some pretty good teams.

Stowers said that his best players of the game were Todd Thorsen on defense and Matt Branch on offense.

Branch passed for 72 yards, hitting 4 of 9 all to Mick McKinney.

Grayling had 10 first downs and only twenty yards in penalties.

Leading on tackles were Brian Kernstock and John Gay. Rusty Argue ran for 169 yards on 14 carries.

Grayling will be traveling to Charlevoix this Friday, September 22nd.

Cheboygan Beats J.V. Team 14-0

An inconsistent offense hurt Grayling's JV squad in a 14-0 loss at Cheboygan last Thursday night.

Cheboygan scored on an 11-yard pass with 17 seconds left in the half and ran for two more points. In the 3rd quarter, they drove 90 yards after Grayling punted their initial possession, and that was the ballgame.

"It was a hard-hitting game," said JV coach Fred Wolcott. "We couldn't put together anything on offense. We weren't sharp and our big line may have worn us down."

Wolcott said freshmen Jim

Schwartz and Arnold Randall turned in good games at cornerback. Tim Hough played well both offensively and defensively and Max Prosser had an excellent game punting.

The J.V. team plays Charlevoix at home this Thursday, Sept. 22.

Pat Harwood Memorial Open Sells Out Again

The Pat Harwood Memorial Lovells Open Golf outing was held at Wilderness Valley Golf Course Saturday, September 10. Luncheon and refreshments were served and trophies were awarded to the winner and 2nd and 3rd place, longest drive and closest to the pin on par three. The winners are 1st place-Cavitch, Johnson, Herter; 2nd place-three Nichols brothers; 3rd place-Schwartz, Parkinson, Parkinson; longest drive-Vern Cavitch; closest to pin-Andy Parker.

Organizers of the event said many people are wanting tickets for this outing but they are sold out year to year. However, the Memorial outing may expand.

Caid's Grocery handled the food order for the event and Fabiano Bros. allowed the use of their Van.

Margie Harwood, Cindy and Dave Paquette, Bud Jones Insurance Co., Lewiston, Wilderness Valley Golf Course, Lovells Riverside Tavern, DuBois Lumber, Glen's, McLean's Ace Hardware, Moore's Automotive, Goodale's Bakery, Ole Dam Party Store, Timberland Adventure, North Branch Country Store, Grayling Country Club, and Fabiano Bros. donated prizes and help. Tom Force, Jim Kinsman, Jim Brown, Eddie Harwood, and Bert Spears also helped with the event.

The Wednesday Morning Auxiliary finished the 1988 golf season on Wednesday morning, September 14.

Guests for lunch were four of the past presidents of the league who are no longer members: Doris Souders, Eleanore Holtcamp, Kay Ellen King, all of Grayling and Barbara Nielson of Traverse City.

Lynda Hetrick, the outgoing president presided at the meeting. New board members are Jean Arwood and Marge Sneath and Marilyn Fick will be the 1989 president. Marge, vice-president, Nancy Hoffman, secretary, and Jean, treasurer.

Prizes were awarded by golf committee members, Donna Pottorff and Pat Jackman. Treva McClanahan was the third member of that committee. Shirley Parker and Doris Anthony took care of the drawings this summer. JoAnn Powell, Evelyn McIntosh, and Pearl Tucker served on the nominating committee. Fay Bovee took care of publicity, and Mabel Gothro, Carol Thompson, and Treva are working on new rules.

The decorating committee was chairmanned by Nancy Hoffman and the lunch committee by Evelyn Kent.

Mercy Day 1988

Catherine McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, heeded the call of Jesus to reach out with courage and love to the needy of her time.

The employees, physicians and volunteers at Mercy Hospital/Grayling are celebrating Mercy Day tonight with a family dinner in the hospital cafeteria. We'd like to share our organization's vision with you.

Mercy Health Services Vision Statement is a statement that concerns all people. It reminds the reader that all persons deserve quality medical care, that every person's dignity must be respected and that society should assure access to needed health services for all. Those are comforting statements since all includes you and me!

MERCY HEALTH SERVICES NORTH

MERCY HOSPITAL/GRAYLING

VISION STATEMENT

Catherine McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, heeded the call of Jesus to reach out with courage and love to the needy of her time. Inspired by her personal interaction with Dublin's poor and by the centuries-old tradition of the Roman Catholic Church, Catherine created new and more responsive structures to meet needs unmet by current social structures. She gathered about her dedicated persons, lay and religious, and she trained women to exercise specific skills and general leadership with both competency and compassion. Catherine chided those responsible for service to be more responsive to the need, "not next week, but today."

Today, Mercy Health Services, under the sponsorship of the Sisters of Mercy—Province of Detroit, continues these efforts to provide health care to people in need, giving priority to those who are economically poor. Our organization depends on the energies of many dedicated persons serving throughout the system whose values enhance the mission of Mercy Health Services. In our service and through our influence, Mercy Health Services is striving to promote a society that assures access to needed health services for all, provided with dignity, competence and compassion.

Catherine McAuley's example and inspiration translate to present and future needs. In a rapidly shifting health care environment marked by complexity, competition, high technology and fragmented service, a compassionate, direct response to human need remains essential. What must be central in our service, regardless of future change, is that persons deserve quality care, that systems exist to serve human needs and that respect for the dignity of every person constitutes a fundamental principle of our action. Mercy Health Services is growing in the understanding that individuals have primary responsibility for their health and that the earth is the primary health resource. A healthy environment will be necessary for healthy people. Working with others who hold common values and relying on God's care will be essential to the works of Mercy in the present and the future.

Within this framework, Mercy Health Services will work toward creating the future envisioned in these statements:

- Mercy Health Services will plan for the application of the values and spirit of the Sisters of Mercy throughout its health care ministry.
- Mercy Health Services will demonstrate a preferential option for the economically poor.
- Mercy Health Services will concentrate on providing comprehensive health services to improve the health status of the communities we serve. In addition to providing acute care services, Mercy Health Services will work with others to meet the needs unmet by current structures.
- Mercy Health Services will work with other health care providers to facilitate inter-congregational and lay-sponsored health care in order to strengthen Catholic health care in the United States.
- Mercy Health Services will strive to shape public policy to improve health status at local, state, national and international levels, emphasizing in these efforts the needs of the economically poor.
- Mercy Health Services will assist people in taking responsibility for their own health by actively promoting wellness and facilitating healing.

National Guitar Champ Performs Here Sept. 28

Folk entertainer Orrin Star will appear in concert at Grayling's Joseph Stripe Auditorium on Wednesday, September 28, at 7:00 p.m.

Star, a Boston-based performer, has appeared in festivals and concert halls throughout the United States and Europe, on Garrison Keillor's "A Prairie Home Companion," and has three albums on Flying Fish Records.

He began performing professionally in the early 1970's, and his musical history includes three bluegrass bands, a summer with banjo great Bill Keith and eight years in a duo with Gary Mehalick. In 1976, he won the National Flatpicking Championship, the largest guitar contest in the nation.

"It is easy to understand why Star was the 1976 U.S. national flatpicking champion," writes the Nashua Telegraph. "Whether strumming, fingerpicking or raising the roof with a flatpick, he just doesn't seem to do anything wrong."

Star will also present concerts for Grayling Middle School and High School students on September 28. His evening concert is open to the public. Admission is $3.00.

Orrin Star's performances are sponsored by the Crawford County Arts Council. For more information, call CCAC president George Morse (348-7037).

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Denton of Grayling are proud to announce the engagement of their son Keith Denton of Brooklyn, Michigan, to Laura Mitchell of Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mitchell of South Redford, MI. Keith and Laura both work at Rosenbalm Aviation in Ypsilanti. The wedding will be on October 21, 1988 in Jackson. The newlyweds will honeymoon in Texas. The couple will then reside in Brooklyn, MI.

Children of Alcoholics To Hold Open House

The Adult Children of Alcoholics of Grayling are having an open house at the St. Mary's Catholic Church education building on September 27th at 7:00 p.m. Sharon Greenhoe from Gaylord will be the speaker and there will be discussion to follow.

Adult children of alcoholics, as well as adult children of other dysfunctional families, share several characteristics in common. Some of these are:

—We become approval seekers and lose our identity in the process.

—We either become alcoholics, marry them, or both. Or we find another compulsive personality such as workaholics.

—We have an overdeveloped sense of responsibility and it is easier for us to be concerned with others rather than ourselves.

—We get guilt feelings when we stand up for ourselves, instead we give into others.

—We become addicted to excitement.

—We judge ourselves harshly and have a very low sense of self-esteem.

—We have stuffed our feelings down from our traumatic childhoods and have lost the ability to feel or express our feelings because it hurts so much.

If you see yourself in this partial list of characteristics, ACOA can be a lot of help to you. At meetings everyone is given a chance to talk about their childhood experiences or to just listen if they prefer.

By talking about our lives when we were children, we can better understand our lives as adults. Talking with others in a group situation eases the pain and increases the joy that we experience. Others can also bring insight to these life situations which can be so confusing.

District Court

The following persons appeared in 83rd District Court before Judge Francis L. Walsh:

Lucinda Marie Johnston, 29 of Grayling, plead guilty to a charge of Impaired Driving. She was fined $355 or 30 days with license suspended for 6 months. She was cited on March 3, 1988 by the City Police.

Jack Bernard Fuche, 46 of Grayling, plead guilty to a charge of Simple Assault. He was fined $155 or 14 days in jail. He was cited after a citizens comp. on May 18, 1988.

Gerald Edward Speckman, 19 of Roscommon plead guilty to a charge of Malicious destruction of personal property under $100. On motion of Prosecuting attn. 1 charge of Malicious destruction over $100 amend as above; other charge of mal. dest. over $100 dismissed. He was fined $155 of 14 days in jail with 12 months probation, $100 restitution. He was fined on May 31, 1987 by a citizens comp.

Timothy Raybould, 29 of Grayling plead guilty to a charge of OUIL. He was fined $405 or 30 days with license revoked. He was cited on May 23, 1987 by the Sheriff Dept.

Mickey Kevin Glass, 24 of Sterling Heights, charge with a B & E occupied, on motion of Pro. Atty, charge dismissed at complainant's request.

Revenues generated from oil and gas leasing projects offshore in the oceans and the Gulf of Mexico have helped provide money for land purchases and the development of 30,000 separate park projects nationwide, including 12 projects totaling $227,343.75 in Crawford County.

Initiated in 1964, the Land and Water Conservation Fund has provided some $6.8 billion to help fund federal land purchases and state and local conservation and outdoor recreation projects in every state, despite the fact that drilling is done only off the coastal states.

"Nearly 84 percent of this money has come from bonuses and rentals paid by the oil companies and from royalties on oil and natural gas produced from offshore leases," says Robert E. Waldron. He is executive director of Associated Petroleum Industries of Michigan, which represents major oil companies in the state. "It's impressive that the entire country, including Michigan, benefits from this federal leasing program."

In Michigan, additional funding for recreational projects also comes from oil and gas drilling. The royalties the state receives for drilling on state-owned lands go into the Michigan Natural Resources Trust fund to help pay for state and local projects.

The federal government has jurisdiction over some 1.4 billion acres of land in the oceans called the outer continental shelf. In most instances, the shelf line is drawn from about three miles out in the ocean, and most of the coastal states retain jurisdiction from the shore line to a point three miles seaward.

Since the federal offshore leasing program began in 1954, however, less than four percent of federal offshore lands has been leased.

Between 1954 and the end of 1987, nearly 8 billion barrels of oil and 80 trillion cubic feet of natural gas were produced from offshore wells. They currently account for about one-eighth of the domestically produced oil and one-quarter of the domestically produced natural gas.

"The oil and gas we find offshore are tremendously important to our domestic petroleum production," says Waldron.

Statistics from the US Department of the Interior and its National Park Service and Fish and Wildlife Service show the projects funded in Crawford County.

I was torn between 5-speed or automatic, not where to get the loan.

"Then I made the right move and chose NBD."

"When I saw this car, I knew I had to have it. I can't honestly say I gave too much thought about where to get the loan. I thought all there was to choosing a car loan was finding the lowest rate. Good thing Mom was along. She set me straight and sent me to NBD.

"They explained that there were other things to consider, such as the length of the term, fixed or variable rates—even the possibility of leasing. Most of all, they made it clear they really wanted to help me get my car.

"Well, I got my car. And I got a great feeling about NBD. Which is why I decided to do all my banking there. I made the right move."

Today, you have more banking choices than ever. At NBD, we have to be better to earn your business. Make the right move, and make NBD your first choice for a car loan—for all your financial needs.

Bits of Talk

By Sandy McAnallen

Yvonne Riddle, R.N., formerly of Kalkaska is visiting her niece, Sandy McAnallen. In the days of Drs. Keyport, Clifford and Henig, Yvonne was on staff at the Old Mercy Hospital and a relief supervisor at Lockwood in Petoskey. Yvonne was also an appointed democrat to the State Central Committee under Soapy Williams. She now lives in Oldsmar, Florida but she says her heart is still in Michigan.

Doris Souders has had hardly any guests so far this year until Labor Day when it seems relatives from all over decided to come to her Grayling home to visit. Doris's granddaughter and her husband, Margaret and Gary Taylor, from Escanaba, Michigan visited with their children, Stephanie, age seven and Christopher, age four, for a couple of days over the holiday. Captain Thomas Knutilla Doris's grandson from Huntsville, Alabama, and his wife stayed for a week with Doris. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Van Orman stayed a night at the Souders' after traveling all the way from their home in Hilo, Hawaii. Ed is Doris's cousin.

Paul and Donna Thomson are now back from their Alaskan cruise. They began their trip flying to Van Couver, British Columbia to stay at the Pan Pacific Hotel. After two days there they boarded the S.S. Nieuw Amsterdam to begin their Alaskan cruise. The fourteen days they were gone from Grayling they encountered only sunshine and great weather. It seems before they arrived in the northwest the weather had been pretty horrible most of the time. But they brought excellent weather to Ketchikan, sunshine to Juneau, and stopped the rain in Sitka and Glacier Bay, Alaska. Wednesday, September 10, the day they arrived back in Grayling they celebrated their 28th anniversary.

The Michigan Trail Riders passed through the Grayling area again recently. This time they were traveling in the reverse direction from the way they went last time. This trip they started in Empire, and ended in Oscoda. The idea, as you may recall, is to go from lake to lake across the state. An interesting note on the membership of the Michigan Trail Riders, apparently there is no age limit to the group as I was told one of the riders is a 77 year old horsewoman. One day last week if you had been driving by the Red Barn you may have noticed that the Trail Riders stopped there for lunch. You could tell this is where they were because there were almost 70 horses hitched somewhere around the building.

John M. Wilcox III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilcox Jr., flew into Detroit on the 19th of August where A.J., JanEl, and Heather picked him up on their way to Grayling for the Wilcox family reunion. John had the opportunity to see many brothers, sisters and family that he has not seen in many years. While in Grayling he stayed at the home of his parents. John returned to Florida the 25th of August with A.J. and family. John is part owner of a Security business in Florida and is in the process of moving from Palm Bay to Barefoot Bay where he will be closer to his work.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wilcox Jr. were pleased to have five of their six children home for a first family reunion. John III came from Palm Bay, Florida. Clark and Terry from Garden Grove, California, were not able to come as he is a policeman and has not been at his job for a full year. Clark's children came from California though, Nicole, and Clark Jr. Also here were Justin Moore, Eugene Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Wilcox and daughter from Palm Bay, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wilcox and girls from Maryland, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Andrews from St. Johns, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raybould from Grayling with their 4 sons. Many relatives from out of town stopped also from Florida, California, Oklahoma, Maryland, Flint, Ludington, Burton, St. Johns, Lake City, Mottersville, Maple Forest, Fred-eric and Waters.

That's all for this week. Keep the bits of talk coming. My number is 348-7439 evenings.

Lehman Meeting Helps Establish Call-Alert System

NOT SECURITY FENCE

Adams stated that since the construction of the minimum security fences, there has been a serious misconception by the public as to the purpose of the fences. He said that the fences were never intended to be security fences, rather he said they were simply to state the camp's boundaries. He explained that there was nothing under the fences to secure them to the ground.

"There are sections along the bottom of the Camp Lehman fence," he said, "where there is sugar sand, which can easily be dug away."

Adams said that the gate is high enough off the ground to allow an individual to crawl underneath it, and the barbed wire along the top of the fence can easily be defeated by a prisoner throwing a blanket over it and climbing over it.

Mert Tobin asked why, if the fence was never intended to be a security fence, why was it built to look like a security fence.

"When you drive by that fence, anyone not familiar with the situation, would think it is a security fence. Why didn't you build a cheaper fence, rather than making the design to look like a security fence, if it wasn't to fool the public?" she asked.

Grant stated that the $1,200,000 allocated by the legislators stipulated it was for fencing and the height of the fence. The Department of Management and Budget engaged engineers to go to each facility and make a schematic drawing of each facility's boundaries. These diagrams were then submitted to Warden Grant's office for approval. Various lay-outs were sent out for bids, and the fences were constructed.

"If more funds had been available for double fences, for burying the fences underground, I am confident these types of fences would have been constructed," said Grant. "People have assumed that the fences were security fences." Grant said that in his opinion, the fences were not designed to trick the public.

Bud Bearss asked Grant how much the fence at Camp Lehman cost the taxpayers.

FENCE COST $70,000

Grant said that it cost approximately $70,000. Bearss said that the State might have put the taxpayers dollars to better use by planting rose bushes along Crawford County roads.

Sharon VanderPool said that the newspapers reported that the fence was a security fence.

"I agree that the information distributed to the newspapers and news media was misleading," said Grant. "It gave you a false sense of security. The fences were never built for security."

An unidentified woman stated, "I think the fences were put up as a sugar pill for the public, and now it is a bitter pill to swallow."

Adams said that a security fence is a double fence with a concrete base and sensors on the fence and ground.

"If a prisoner wants to leave," stated Adams, "they are going to leave, and there isn't much we can do about it. All we can do," he said, "is be alert and watch for this and take proper counts, and that is what we do."

Grant concurred with Adams. He said, "we won't ever be able to keep people from escaping. They escape from the best of fortresses. We thought," he said, "that Alcatraz was a facility that no one could escape from, but they escaped from there."

Records show that since the construction of the minimum security fences escapes have decreased, Grant stated.

Tom Mastel and James Dasko asked what the camp program is doing to prevent escapes.

ESCAPE RATIO DROPS

Grant said that since 1985 the correction system has continued to improve the escape ratio. In 1985 there were 286 escapes compared to 129 escapes in 1987. As of 9/5/88 there have only been 106 escapes state-wide. This improvement has occurred, Grant said, despite the fact that the minimum security camp's population has increased by over 1000 prisoners since 1985.

Every escape is analyzed by the staff of the facility to determine what went wrong. Grant explained that this internal analysis occurs at the individual camp level, the Camp Program Headquarters in Jackson, and at the Department of Corrections level in Lansing.

Every escape is important, said Grant, because it only takes one escape to cause problems.

Correction officers try to anticipate bad news before it reaches prisoners, and try to break the news gently.

Head counts are taken every hour after darkness. Should this head count come up short, an emergency count is taken immediately. If this count, which usually takes 30 minutes to complete, confirms that a prisoner is missing, the camp informs the State Police, and then notifies the local law enforcement agency.

Grant stated that escapes have been reduced to what he considers an acceptable level. "With over 10,000 prisoners in the camp program and only 100 escapes," Grant said, "in my opinion, that is probably an acceptable level."

Ed Tobin stated, "I was under the impression that the camp program was for prisoners serving time for less severe crimes, not the murderers and rapists that are at the camp now. Murderers and rapists, to me," Tobin said, "belong in Jackson."

TYPES OF PRISONERS

Grant said that there are only two categories of prisoners who cannot be placed in minimum security facilities. The first is a prisoner who has been sentenced or has a past history of sex offenses, and the second is a prisoner who has been sentenced for or has a past history of arson. "All other prisoners will at some point in time be placed in a minimum security facility," he said. "99% of all people who serve time will someday be released, and the minimum security facility is one step in the release process."

Adams explained that when a murderer is sent to prison he enters the system via the Reception and Guidance Center at Jackson. From there he will be placed in a close security institution and will probably spend 8 years there before being considered for medium security. Once he reaches medium security, he will spend another 4 years or more there before moving on to a minimum security camp. "Usually," Adams said, "by the time a 2nd degree murderer reaches a minimum security facility he has spent close to 18 years 'behind the wall.'" Adams said that by this time the prisoner is within a couple of years of going home.

Grant said that each prisoner is screened to determine what degree of custody, maximum, close, medium, minimum and community program, he needs and when the custody needs change. Each level of custody involves less and less supervision.

Dolly Adolph asked who screened the prisoner who escaped in August, and determined he was ready for minimum security?

MISTAKE MADE

Grant said that the prisoner who was serving 40-60 years for conspiracy to commit 1st degree murder, who escaped from Camp Lehman on August 6, had spent one month and 25 days at the Grayling facility. Prior to his escape the camp program had reviewed his transfer and had identified the prisoner as being misplaced in the minimum security camp. He was scheduled to be moved to a medium security facility on the day after he escaped. Grant said that somehow the prisoner got word of his impending transfer, and took off rather than be moved.

The corrections department has a policy of maintaining a prisoner at the least restrictive level of custody as possible. This prisoner screened as requiring medium custody, but the person doing the screening sent the prisoner to minimum security, explained Grant.

"This country locks up more people away from society than any other country in the world," said Grant. "It is the job of the corrections people to keep these prisoners confined. With this responsibility there are innate problems, hazards and difficulties that go along with the job. Because we are human beings," Grant continued, "we are going to make mistakes. Obviously we made a mistake with this individual...in not moving him a day ahead of schedule."

Adams said that another serious misunderstanding between the camp program and the public is the types of prisoners being housed at the different minimum security facilities.

"Most people assume that camps house people who drove away cars or B&E'd a house, or something like that. Perhaps a greater percentage of prisoners years ago were there; however, we still had prisoners who were in camps for armed robbery, manslaughter, assault less than murder, etc., and we have always had these types of prisoners at Camp Lehman," Adams said. "There hasn't been a change in population...the change is the greater awareness of the system by the public."

Wireman stated that there are no prisoners serving time for murder at Camp Lehman at this time.

NO ARMED PERSONNEL

Several persons asked Wireman if any of the Camp Lehman staff carried weapons. Wireman said, "No."

Warden Grant explained that there were no weapons at all at Camp Lehman or any other minimum security facility. He said that only a few people in facilities considered armed actually carry weapons, and those people are "post personnel."

"No one inside a facility is to have any weapons on them," stated Grant, "obviously a prisoner can take the weapon from you and use it on you."

Grant said that the issue in terms of management of people is to manage people through the treatment of people. Simply because a person has been convicted of a crime and sent to prison doesn't make them any less an individual than they were the day before they committed the crime," stated Grant.

Dasko asked how Camp Lehman is equipped to handle a riot?

The staff would handle the situation the best they could until help from the local police and the State Police agencies arrived, said Grant.

Riots occur when prisoners take hostages in order to gain something or to escape, Grant stated. In the camp program there is no need to riot.

DRUG PROBLEM OVERSTATED?

Dasko said that he had been told that there is a serious drug problem at Camp Lehman. "What is being done about the camp's drug problem?" he asked. "How is it being brought in, and what are you doing to prevent it?"

Grant said that there has been a lot of information put out about the drug situation in the correctional facilities that is not being substantiated by data and statistics.

"I don't think the drug problem is any worse in prison than it is on the streets," said Grant. Correction's budget has been increased to allow for drug testing, Grant explained. The department does a random selection (by computer) of the prison population every month. Prisoners released into communities on furloughs, public work and work pass programs are tested more often than others.

It costs the department $18.70 per prisoner for a complete battery of tests to determine if drugs are being used. The program has been in effect for two years, and less than 1/2 of 1% are testing positive.

"We are not getting the results that indicate that we have a major drug problem," said Grant. "Prison is a microcosm of society," Grant said, "If you think about it we should have a bigger problem because we are dealing with a group of individuals who have already demonstrated that they are not law abiding citizens."

VISITORS SEARCHED?

Llwyn VanderPool asked, "Are the people checked who come into Camp Lehman on visiting days? Do you make sure that they are not bringing in any weapons or dope?"

Grant stated that there is a sign posted at the facility that states that anyone entering the grounds with alcohol, drugs or any type of weapon is subject to arrest. All visitors are to have valid identification, preferably a Michigan drivers license.

"We do not stripe search anyone unless we feel we have probably cause, but we do check individuals and occasionally we check vehicles," Grant said. "That's the degree of checking we do at this level of custody. At the higher levels of custody there are other procedures followed such as having visitors walk through metal detectors, etc."

"Remember," said Grant, "that the people in minimum security custody will soon be released."

PUBLIC WORK PROGRAM

Mary Coy asked how well the prisoners working on the public works program are screened?

Dallas Hudson explained that the prison crews are supervised by a trained state employee, except for the crew assigned to Camp Grayling, and that supervisor is a Department of Military Affairs employee who has received training through the State of Michigan.

Hudson said that crews consist of 8-10 inmates, and the inmates receive $2.50 per day. Their wages are paid for by the governmental agency contracting for the work crew. Crews who work for the Department of Natural Resources receive $.85 per day paid for by the Department of Corrections. Jobs approved by Hudson must be for the good of the public and are never on private land.

The public works program currently has 275 prisoners leaving the camp daily, and since 1984, only 5 people have escaped from the program.

Grant explained that prisoners are initially screened for minimum security placement. Public works prisoners are not screened as closely as work pass prisoners because they are supervised by a department employee. Prisoners going out on the work pass program are supervised by their employer. Supervisors are required to "see" their charges once every 1/2 hour.

Coy questioned the quality of supervision the prisoners who worked on the Railroad Depot two years ago received. She said that a couple of the prisoners sat around day after day, and would walk back and forth between the depot and a car parked nearby. Hudson asked Coy if she reported the incident. He said that if she had, he would have been on the site in a matter of minutes.

Singerich took a few minutes to explain Camp Lehman's work pass program.

He said that the work pass program involves placing prisoners in private sector jobs where they receive at least minimum wage. Employers who request prisoner help must convince Singerich that they cannot get help any other way.

"The program is one of great benefit to the communities," said Singerich, "because the employers are very happy with it."

WORK PASS PROGRAM

Work pass prisoners are working in businesses in Grayling, Gaylord, Lewiston, Houghton Lake and Kirtland Community College in various employment opportunities.

Grant said that the work pass law was enacted in 1966. He said that before any prisoner can participate in the program they must agree in writing to have their paychecks sent to Camp Control in Grass Lake.

One third of the prisoner's pay is taken to cover transportation, room and board, and clothing expenses.

The prisoner is required to pay child or spouse support. Whatever is paid by the prisoner is deducted from any public assistance received by prisoner's family.

A portion of his pay is put into a savings account to be given to the prisoner upon his release, and a small portion goes into a spendable account that the prisoners have access to for food and personal items which can be purchased from the camp store. If a prisoner quits his job or is fired, he cannot touch the money in his escrow account.

Approved employers are exempt from paying any worker benefits such as workman's and unemployment compensations, health insurance, etc. This is done as an incentive for employers to hire prisoners.

Mary Harland, County Commissioner and Grayling employer, defended the prisoner public and work pass programs by pointing out that prison labor completed the berming project at the Crawford County Courthouse, saving the taxpayers a great deal of money, and will save more when the berming reduces the Courthouse's annual heating bills.

Harland also stated that as an employer involved in the work pass program she employs 5 inmates, and said, "I would not part with one of them, because I can not get citizens to work."

An unidentified man challenged Harland's motives for hiring inmates by saying that she saves money too, by not having to pay any employee benefits.

"Michigan is one of the leading states of the nation in terms of its progressiveness and in terms of its successfulness of the work program," stated Grant.

TELEPHONE ALERT

It was not until late in the evening that the telephone alert system was discussed.

Mike Armstrong opened the subject when he asked who Camp Lehman calls in case of an escape, and who is supposed to notify the nearby residents?

Grant stated that Camp Lehman is required to notify the State Police. They are not required to notify any other law enforcement agency, but they do. They notify all local police agencies.

Grant said that when an escape occurs the camp staff has procedures to follow and cannot be tied to the telephone. He said that the telephone alert system notification call should come from the sheriff's department.

Sheriff Hatfield stated that whatever system the township decides to adopt, it is imperative that the list of names his department is to call be updated regularly. He said that the sheriff's dispatcher has always tried to call area residents, but the dispatcher has found that many times the numbers on file with the department are no longer in service, or have been assigned to different people.

Hatfield said that like the Camp Lehman personnel the dispatcher is especially busy during an escape. He said that the system fails completely when his department cannot reach anyone on the township's list.

Grant proposed that Wireman work with the elected officials and the law enforcement agencies to develop a network alert system that would encompass a 25 mile radius around the Camp Lehman facility. He said that he would share his knowledge and experience in assisting other communities develop similar plans with Wireman, and Wireman would then work closely with community representatives.

Supervisor Coy suggested that the township meeting be adjourned until the following evening when the residents of Maple Forest Township meet to begin formulating a workable telephone alert system.

Sorenson Funeral Home To Offer Forethought Funeral Planning

Derek and Denise McEvers of Sorenson Funeral Home today announced an official decision to offer Forethought funeral planning.

"For those individuals who elect to plan their funerals before the need arises," said Derek, "this particular plan is all-inclusive and additionally can provide protection against inflation. We examined several programs currently available and clearly found the Forethought program best suits our needs and the needs of the families we serve. Together with the other programs and services our funeral home currently offers, we are confident we now extend to our clients a more complete, well-rounded and timely selection."

Forethought funeral planning is an insurance-based program for funeral planning before the need arises. It is available only from licensed funeral homes. Only individuals who have earned their state insurance license can qualify to be counselors and offer the Forethought Life Insurance policies specially designed to fund guaranteed funeral goods and services.

"We are delighted to be a part of the growing network of funeral planning professionals offering Forethought funeral planning," noted Denise. "We can now offer a program to our community that lets people relieve their loved ones of emotional and financial burden at a time of high stress. And, with the Forethought Life Insurance program, funding is available to anyone through age 100."

PROBATE IN PERSPECTIVE

BY: GRACE DOPP WEGNER

CHILD NEGLECT AND CHILD ABUSE is a disease which has reached epidemic proportions throughout the Country and Crawford County is becoming a growing part of these frightening statistics. Child Abuse and Neglect may be physical, verbal, emotional or sexual. Physical abuse can include shaking, beating, burning or failure to provide the necessities of life, such as food and shelter. Verbal abuse can include excessive yelling, belittling, or teasing. Emotional abuse can include failure to provide warmth, attention, supervision or normal living experiences. Sexual abuse can include incest, rape or other sexual activity.

Common signs of child abuse and neglect include repeated injuries, need for medical care, neglected appearance, disruptive behavior, chronic truancy, passive and withdrawn behavior, "super critical" parents, inadequate supervision, extremely isolated families and drug and alcohol abuse.

Health, welfare, education, child care and law enforcement personnel are required by law to report suspected abuse or neglect.

What can or should private citizens do? Although private citizens are not legally required to report child abuse or neglect, as a human being, citizens have a moral responsibility to protect a child. It shouldn't hurt to be a child. The law protects any person from civil or criminal liability who in good faith reports actual or suspected abuse or neglect. If you suspect or are aware of abuse or neglect, please contact your local County Department of Social Services, Protective Services Unit or your local Sheriff or Police Department.

Literacy Network Honors Lorna Morse

The Crawford AuSable Literacy Network has announced its first ever honorary volunteer - Lorna Morse. Morse has been with the Literacy program since its origin. In addition to tutoring three students, she has also spent many hours at the Adult Learning Center performing administrative tasks as assistant to the Coordinator.

In addition to her work with the Literacy Network, Morse also holds a job, manages a home and family, and volunteers her services for United Methodist Church in Grayling. Still, she found extra time to assist the Network not only in the above mentioned capacities, but also in the form of public relations and promotional efforts, as well as attending conferences to increase her own knowledge in the area of Literacy and the teaching of reading.

VOLUNTEER HONORED — The Crawford AuSable Literacy Network has honored Lorna Morse for her volunteer work aimed at helping others read.

Beginning with the September 14 drawing, the Michigan Lottery will repeat a popular Super Lotto bonus drawing. The following details the sweepstakes.

Q: Can you explain this promotion?
A: Simply stated, the "Super Lotto Second Chance Sweepstakes" provides a second chance to win big money for each player entering five non-winning wagers on a single ticket for a single drawing.

Q: How much can be won in this sweepstakes?
A: The top prize will be $50,000.

Q: How do you enter?
A: Each individual ticket with the five non-winning plays should be sent, along with a piece of paper clearly stating the player's name, address and telephone number, to: Michigan Lottery, "Super Lotto Second Chance Sweepstakes", Lansing, MI 48916.

Q: Which Super Lotto drawings are part of this promotion?
A: Valid plays in the September 14 through October 22 drawings can be entered in the sweepstakes.

Q: What is the deadline for entries?
A: All entries must be received by the Lottery no later than October 26 in order to be valid.

Q: How will the sweepstakes drawings work?
A: A series of random drawings will be conducted by a Lottery drawing manager from among all the valid entries. Six finalists will be drawn from this group and those players will be notified by Lottery officials by November 12.

Q: What happens after that?
A: The six finalists will compete in a half-hour television special for the $50,000 top prize as well as for other cash prizes.

Q: When will that program be seen?
A: The program will air at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, November 19 over the statewide Lottery television network which broadcasts the Lottery drawings.

Q: What else is planned for the program?
A: The "Super Lotto Second Chance Sweepstakes" program, to be hosted by noted radio and television personality Dick Purtan along with Lottery hostess Aggie Uesdy, will feature live drawings of the Daily 3, Daily 4 and Super Lotto games in addition to all the sweepstakes action.

If you have a question not yet covered in these monthly columns, send it to: "Winners Circle", Michigan Lottery, P.O. Box 30077, Lansing, MI 48909. Fifty free instant game tickets will be awarded for each question used!

Democrats Plan Candidates Night

The Crawford County Democratic Party Executive Board met on September 15 to plan for a "Meet the Candidates Night," which will be held at their Wednesday, October 12, meeting at 7:30 p.m. Democratic and non-partisan candidates are invited to address the Party's members. Speeches will be limited to five minutes and candidates must contact Party Chair Clay Horton (348-8170) by Friday, October 7, to have their names placed on the agenda. Light refreshments will be served after the meeting.

In other Party news, Crawford County Democrats William Coy, Blanche Miller and Gayle Mills attended the State Convention in Detroit on August 27-28. In addition to voting on the Party platform and candidates for state offices, delegates heard speeches by Michigan Governor James Blanchard, U.S. Senators Carl Levin and Donald Riegle and John Dukakis, son of presidential candidate Michael Dukakis.

The Party also had an information booth at the County Fair in August, sponsored by the UAW Community Action Plan. County Democrats who staffed the booth include: Clyde Anthony, William Coy, Shirley Deron, Anthony Dobry, Joe and Pat Elekonich, Howard Guyette, Margaret Hayes, Clay Horton, Sue Keene, Harold Mertes, Kay Sellheim, Barbara Selesky, Ed Tobin and Joseph and Barbara White. The members were assisted by CAP Council representative Jim Gordon.

BPW Plans Christmas Project

The Grayling Business and Professional Women met Thursday evening, September 8, at the Grayling Holiday Inn for dinner and their regular monthly meeting. Their guest speaker was Marjorie Matthews, Director of the Animal Shelter.

Roberta Wright gave a report on the Management Training meeting that she attended in St. Ignace. The rest of the meeting consisted of planning the year and discussing the Scholarship fund and the upcoming Christmas projects for the Crawford County Community Service.

The Business and Professional Women's aims and objectives are to elevate the standards for women in Business and the Professions. To promote the interest of Business and Professional women, To bring about a spirit of cooperation among the Business and Professional Women of the United States and to extend opportunities to Business and Professional women through education along lines of industrial, scientific and vocational activities.

The Local Chapter will be trying to increase membership, increase visibility, work on the Scholarship funds and various other projects, throughout the year. Anyone interested in visiting or joining our club may contact: Carol Hallett, 348-7267, or Judy Craft, 348-8471.

Sophomore MEAP Testing Begins On September 26

The Grayling High School Counseling Department will administer the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) test to 10th grade students from September 26 to October 13. The test, which is required by the State of Michigan, is given to determine which reading, mathematics and science skills students have learned and those with which they still need help.

Students will be tested in reading and mathematics on September 26, 27 and 28 during 2nd and 3rd hours, and in science on October 4 and 5. Make up tests will be given on October 12 and 13.

The tests will be administered by GHS counselors Vickie Green and Bill Klinger. They ask that parents follow these suggestions

Spencley-Hamlin Married

Shelly A. Spencley and Scott M. Hamlin exchanged wedding vows at the United Methodist Church in Pellston, Michigan, officiated by the Reverend Steven Weinburger on the 23rd of July, 1988, at 4:00 p.m.

Renee Spencley, sister of the bride was the maid of honor and Lori Madill and Susie Thompson were bridesmaids. Lois Thompson, aunt of the bride read the scripture reading, and the grandfather of the bride, Lawrence Spencley, read the wedding prayer.

Best man was Dean Smith, brother of the groom. John Spencley and Paul Hamlin were groomsmen, the ushers were Richard Smith, Mark Smith, and Dana Spencley.

The family unity candles were lit by mother of the groom, Ann Hamlin and mother of the bride, Virginia Lewis. A reception was held at the Brass Rail Lounge in the Pellston Airport.

County Delegates Attend Convention

On Friday, Sept. 9th and Sat. Sept. 10th the Michigan Republicans met at the Westin Hotel and Cobo Hall in Detroit. Presiding as Convention Chairman was US Congressman Bob Davis of Gaylord.

The Delegates nominated two candidates for Supreme Court Justice, and two candidates each for the State Board of Education and the Boards of the three largest Universities (U. of M., Michigan State and Wayne State.) Their names will appear on the November ballot. Also chosen to represent Michigan at-large were two presidential Electors.

During the Friday Caucuses, Dennis Starner of Midland and Manistique's Rick Berquist were re-elected to Chair the 10th and 11th Congressional Districts. Kathleen Townsend was named honorary Presidential Electorate representing the 10th Congressional District. They were congratulated by US Congressman Bob Davis and Bill Shuette.

Presenting Crawford County and participating on the Floor were State Delegates Joseph Callewaert, and his wife, Jean. They met with U.S. Senate Candidate, Jim Dunn, who said, "I'm in touch with the needs and priorities of Crawford County, and I'll be there when you need me."

Retired School Personnel Starting Area Chapter

Michigan Association of Retired School Personnel Executive Director, Bonnie Carpenter, and area director, Leo Fitzgerald have announced that efforts to form a chapter in the Crawford-Oscoda county area are underway.

A meeting of Michigan school retirees residing in the two counties will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, October 14, in the Auditorium at Mio High School. Fitzgerald said the purpose of this meeting will be to appoint nominating and by-law committee members. M.A.R.S.P.'s Executive Director will speak at the meeting. Her topic is "What is M.A.R.S.P. Up to Now?"

Retired Michigan school personnel interested in the formation of a M.A.R.S.P. chapter in the Crawford-Oscoda area are urged to call one of the following indicating intention to attend or, if unable to attend, their interest in the formation of the M.A.R.S.P. chapter: Ann Doty, Grayling, 348-9543; Vivian Miteen, Mio, 826-3934; or Shirley Myers, Fairview, 848-2330.

Eye Care News

Duplicate Eyewear
By: Richard Ferrigan

QUESTION: Why would it be important to have two pairs of eye glasses?

ANSWER: The most obvious reason of course would be loss of your initial eyeglasses. Two pairs of eyeglasses may be more of a necessity of a person with very poor vision, such as if one pair was lost or broken while traveling you may end up stranded. Eyewear has also become such an accessory to certain people, a second pair may be a chance to dress up an outfit or become more casual. Certain people have multiple pairs for various visual situations such as computer viewing, sports activities and safety situations. Multiple pairs of eyewear are also being purchased very commonly because of the many different eye styles and colors now available.

The Gospel of John

Part 49: Blind Beggar sees Son of God

The false religious Pharisees try to discredit Jesus. "We know that God spoke unto Moses: as for this fellow we know not from whence he is." (John 9:29). This is opposite of what they said in John 7:27. The healed blind man now grows in courage and discredits the claims of the Pharisees. He questions how they as religious leaders of the nation know nothing about such a miracle worker. (John 9:30). He reminds them of their teaching that "God heareth not sinners" and reminds them that such miracles imply answered prayer for one who hears and obeys God's will, and is a worshipper of God. (John 9:31). He further reminds them that even from the earliest history of Moses, no such miracle has been recorded. (John 9:32). Therefore, he concludes, "If this man were not of God, he could do nothing." (John 9:33). At this, the Pharisees reject the person, precepts, and presence of this man. "They answered and said unto him, 'Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out'" (John 9:34). False religions reject those who insist on standing upon the truth.

Jesus Christ knowing about his rejection by the Pharisees, sought him out and asked him, "...Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" (John 9:35). "He answered and said, 'Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? And Jesus said unto him, 'Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. And he said, 'Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.'" (John 9:36-38). This is one of the most profound statements of Jesus Christ that He is the eternal Son of God. First, the blind man saw him as a miracle working man, then as a prophet who proclaimed the Words of God, and now, as the Son of God worthy of worship as very God.

The healed beggar was banished from his religion for testifying to the light of God. Through more light, the healed beggar came face to face with Jesus Christ as his God. Now in the last section, we observe how God's light brings blindness to false religion. "And Jesus said, 'For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.'" (John 9:39). Jesus Christ came to save sinners and confirm the self-righteous in their sins. The preplexed Pharisees ask if they are blind. (John 9:40). "Jesus said unto them, 'If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, 'We see; therefore your sin remaineth.'" (John 9:41). Those who see no need of being saved from their sins through Jesus Christ are blinded by their own self-righteousness. The work of Jesus Christ on the cross either saves you from your sins for all eternity, or remains judgment to condemn you in your sins.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Think carefully about the words of this prayer—

"Now I lay me down to sleep
I pray the Lord my soul to keep
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take."

In this country it first appeared in editions of The New England Primer about the time of the Revolutionary War. But the earliest record of the prayer is found in a devotional handbook dated 1160 A.D.

If the third line strikes you as morbid, remember how high the mortality rate among children was just four generations ago.

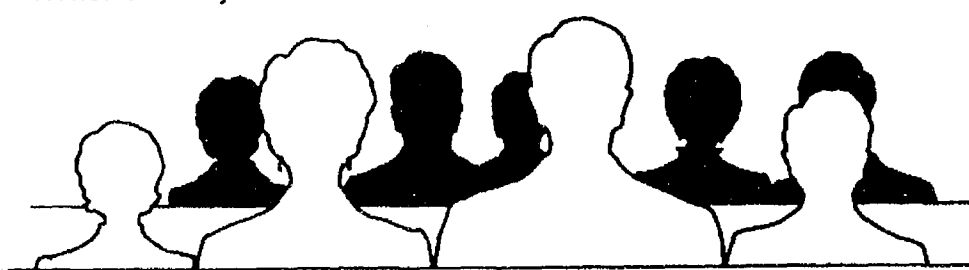

Some modern parents have taught their youngsters an additional couplet:

"If I should live for other days
I pray the Lord to guide my ways."

That's a worthy addition—if we do our part!

Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep

Support the Church. Share with your children its worship and teaching.
Honor God in your home.

City Council Proceedings

August 29, 1988

Regular meeting of the City Council held August 29, 1988.
Meeting called to order by Mayor Golinick at 7:30 p.m.

Members present: Golinick, Latuszek, Sloan, Thompson, White.

Members absent: none.

Also in Attendance: Jerry W. Morford, City Manager; Allen V. Schreiner, City Treasurer; A. Donald Sorenson, Emil Kraus, Albert L. Quaal, Robert McLachlan, Nelson Miles, Tom Mills, Brian Banda, Irv McIsaac, Mary Jane Knibbs, Ron and Carolyn Rakoczy, Peter and Gloria Stephan.

Moved by White, supported by Sloan that the minutes of the meeting of August 8, 1988 be approved as presented. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

Citizens who wish to speak. None.

Communications were received and noted.

From City Treasurer re: July Financial Statement.

From Grayling Housing Commission re: Commission Minutes of 8-2-88.

From Grayling Housing Commission re: Commission Minutes of 8-9-88. Mr. Golinick asked about the proposed change in employee policy. He was opposed to this change. Ms. Latuszek concurred. Mr. Golinick stated that in no case does a vote on a motion indicate whether or not a motion passed and he did not feel that a quorum voted on the matter of election of officers at the August 9th meeting.

From C.C.T.A. re: Meeting Minutes of 7-13-88.

From Fire Chief re: Department Strength.

Moved by White, supported by Golinick that contingent upon Grayling Township approval the Fire Department strength be authorized to increase to 25. Ayes: 4, Nays: 1 (Sloan), Absent: 0, motion carried.

From Kent Reynolds re: 60/40 Sidewalk Replacement.

Moved by Thompson, supported by White that $57.60 be allowed for participation in Mr. Reynolds sidewalk replacement. Ayes: 3, Nays: 2, Absent: 0, motion carried.

From County Clerk re: Public Hearings on National Guard.

Moved by Thompson, supported by Latuszek that Mayor Golinick represent the City in favor of the National Guard and present a letter of support. (See letter Attached) Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

From M.M.L. re: Legislative Bulletins.

From AuSable River System Property Owners Association re: Various matters.

Old Business.

Mayor Golinick opened the Public Hearing on a request to rezone Blk. 10 of Hadleys 2nd Addition to the City of Grayling from R-2 to C-2 at 7:31 p.m. The City Manager's staff report detailed the proposal and the property and recommended denial of the petition because the property is appropriately zoned at present in relation to surrounding uses. Re-zoning to C-2 as requested would result in increased traffic congestion at an already congested area. Further the highest and best use of the property in question would seem to be R-2 residential and/or limited office use in light of the access problem, parking area needs and relationship to surrounding uses. Mr. Rakoczy and Mr. Kraus both were in agreement with the recommendation to deny the request. Mr. McIsaac also opposed the re-zoning of the property on behalf of St. Mary's Church. Mrs. Rakoczy agreed with the other people in regard to the proposal. Mr. Miles spoke in favor of the proposal as the representative of the owner, Mrs. Mary Jane Knibbs. It was his opinion that the highest and best use for the area would be as a commercial property. A request was made for a postponement of the Hearing, Mr. Morford stated that that would be up to the City Council. Mr. Banda spoke in opposition to the re-zoning proposal. Mrs. Knibbs stated that she had spoken to St. Mary's Church authority in May and was told that they did not want the property. Mr. McIsaac replied that he will find out what the church's wishes are in this matter.

Moved by Latuszek, supported by Thompson that the Public Hearing be tabled to the next Council meeting for continuation at 7:30 p.m., September 12, 1988. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

The City Manager presented bids which were received on some surplus equipment. Bids were as follows:

	1984 Vehicle	1986 Parts Car
A. Knierim	$1,087.01	$387.01
John McKenna	None	75.00
Shields Body Shop	325.00	325.00
Jack Plaxton	None	486.00

Recipes

By Phyllis Brummer

If you spend your winters in Florida, you have probably seen Calamondin bushes growing in yards bearing very small fruit that looks much like an orange. These are generally used as a decorative shrub, but the fruit makes a delicious marmalade. You may be lucky enough to find someone who would give you a few Calamondins. Then are extremely tart, tasting somewhat like a Seville orange.

CALAMONDIN MARMALADE

Halve (do not peel), seed, and coarsely chop enough fruit to make 2 cups. Add one cup orange juice and bring mixture to a boil, stirring. Add 3 cups sugar and boil 15 minutes. Pour into hot jelly jars and seal with lids and rings. Makes about 5 cups.

It is time to start thinking about fruit-cakes for the holidays. We have been using a recipe since 1956 that does not have the usual spicy batter and because of the whole fruit and nuts, the slices are pretty and colorful.

GOLDEN FRUITCAKE

2½ c. flour
1/2 tsp. salt
4 tsp. baking powder
5 eggs
1 c. sugar
1/2 c. orange juice
1 tsp. vanilla
1 lb. golden raisins
1 lb. whole dates
1 lb. whole brazil nuts
2 c. walnut halves
8 oz. whole candied red cherries
8 oz. whole candied green cherries
8 oz. candied pineapple cut in large chunks

Mix dry ingredients. Beat eggs until light and lemon-colored. Add sugar gradually. Add orange juice alternately with dry ingredients. Add vanilla and fold in fruit and nuts. Bake in 2 wax paper lined loaf pans at 300° for about 1½ hours. Cool cakes somewhat then remove wax paper and cool completely. Wrap cakes in a cloth moistened with wine, brandy, rum, or orange juice and wrap in foil. Keep cloth moistened. For a slightly darker cake, substitute one pound whole figs for the dates.

Fresh pickles are easy to make and these will keep in your refrigerator for a year. Prepare the brine and stir it frequently while slicing the cucumbers. It does take a while to dissolve completely.

FRESH PICKLES

1/2 c. salt
4 c. sugar
4 c. vinegar
1½ tsp. turmeric
1½ tsp. celery seed

Select mature but not seedy cucumbers and peel and slice them into a gallon jar, alternating with layers of sliced yellow onions in whatever proportion you wish. Add the dissolved vinegar mixture and refrigerate. Start eating the next day; the pickles will stay crisp.

For a quick and easy "Cheesecake", combine 2-8 oz. packages of cream cheese, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 tsp. vanilla. Line 12 muffin cups with paper liners and place a vanilla wafer in each. Divide the cheese mixture among the cups and bake 12-15 minutes at 350°. When cool, top with cherry pie filling or sweetened, thickened fresh fruit, such as peaches, plums or strawberries.

Do you dislike the taste of sweetened condensed milk in recipes? Try this substitute: combine in a blender 1 cup instant dry milk, 1/3 cup boiling water, 3 tablespoons melted butter, 2/3 cup sugar and a dash of salt. This will make the equivalent of a 14 ounce can of sweetened condensed milk.

For a different taste and texture and for added nutrition, substitute wheat germ for crushed crackers or bread crumbs when coating chicken or fish.

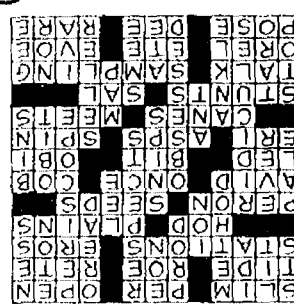

Leftover tomato paste can be saved for later use. Put paste on a baking sheet by the tablespoonful and freeze. When frozen, drop into a plastic bag and it will be all measured out for future use.

BUDDY'S WORKSHOP

Repairing Single-Lever Faucets

We have a name-brand single-lever faucet in the kitchen, and it uses seats and springs instead of washers. It developed a small drip, so I changed the seats and springs. Now the drip is gone, but the water won't shut off in the middle like it's supposed to, and there is a small leak around the bottom of the spout. What do I do now? I thought I had replaced everything.

If the water doesn't shut off in the down-middle position, there are obviously some more parts that need replacing. Go back and get a complete repair kit for your faucet. This kit usually contains O-rings, seats and springs, a cap washer to go over the ball, and a new guide to go over the cap washer. If you want to replace the ball, (what the faucet handle attaches to) you may have to purchase it separately. But as long as you're at it, you may as well do it. In the end, you'll have spent a little more money, but everything except the faucet body and the handle will be brand new.

My neighbor suggested top-dressing my front yard to make it easier to mow. I didn't want to seem like an idiot, so I didn't question him. What exactly is top-dressing?

Top-dressing is nothing more than spreading screened topsoil or compost over your lawn to make it level. Now is a good time to do it, too. Just spread the material over your lawn, move it around to fill in low spots, (the back of a garden rake works well) then water it for a week or so to help the loose material settle. You can then overseed your lawn if you wish. One note of caution: be careful not to cover tree roots deeply; you may end up with a level lawn and a dead tree.

What, in your opinion, is the easiest way to get rid of flying insects?

Build a bird house to attract insect-eating birds, such as martins.

My next-door neighbor spent a lot of money on oil-based paint when he repainted the exterior of his house. I was thinking of paying five or six dollars a gallon when I repaint mine. Is the difference in price really worth it?

As with any product, there are many over-priced versions of the same thing. But you can conduct a little experiment here. Paint your house with your bargain paint (probably water-based) and see which paint lasts longer. If you are painting again in two or three years, consider using the kind of paint your neighbor used.

Bear vs. Bear

Oh! Papa Bear shot a bear,

Question be, Where he shot it
Or where has the man got it?
Which or both, do you-all mean?
In Grayling it may be seen.
'Peepin Toms' are a-hopen'
That the blind is left open...
(Those 2 days when closed you are--
Disappointing those-come-far!
Monday through Friday, at 8
Till 5-- some arrive too late...

To Alaska, Fred did go
(This maker of the fine bow!)
One arrow from his quiver
Pierced the Kodiak's liver;
Midst half a ton of muscle!!
From there I'd want to hustle!!
With just 20 yards between
Me and this brown bear so mean!!

Motorized Memories

How many of you folks remember
Those great old cars of yesterday
There were so many different kinds
That somehow just faded away.

Back in the twenties and the thirties
When we were just entering the auto age
A few of the names that I remember
Were the Essex, La Salle and Graham Paige.

There was the Overland and the Oakland
Packard, Nash, Reo, Hudson and Stars
DeSoto, Whippet, Studebaker and Terraplane
To name a few of the old cars.

I know I've forgotten a lot of them
There were so many kinds back then
You can go to an Antique Auto Show
And still see most of them again.

Maybe you remember Grandpa's old Essex
Or drove a Studebaker on your first date
Some of those old cars you could swear by
Or swear at if you were late.

Now they are someones treasure
They are worth a pile of dough
They can bring back a lot of memories
Of the good old days of long ago.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

This year's duck hunting season will be the shortest in recent years. This is due mostly to this summer's drought and its effect on nesting success. This low water period makes much worse the critical loss of wetlands for duck nesting in the "Prairie Provinces" of Canada.

Locally, the season will run from October 8 to November 6. Southern Michigan, the "South Zone", will have a split season from October 15 to November 10 and from November 25-27. Goose seasons are a little different, with the local goose season running from October 8 to November 16.

Instead of using the point season for determining one's limit of ducks, this year a hunter is allowed a total of 3 ducks per day. This limit may include no more than 2 mallards (only 1 hen), 1 black duck, 2 wood ducks, 1 pintail or 1 redhead. This more restrictive bag limit is also a result of poor nesting success.

Hopefully, the drought will end and solve the immediate problem. The long term loss of habitat and decline of duck populations will continue to be cause for concern, however.

The waterfowl digest should be available soon. You will want to consult this publication for more details on this year's regulations.

It's Stress, Not Relief When Older Siblings Leave

By Shelley Hubbard,
4-H Program Assistant
Cooperative Ext. Service
348-2841 Ext. 264

Many adults believe that teenagers are thrilled when their older brothers and sisters move away from home to marry, work or go to college.

But instead of happiness over a new bedroom, car or their benefits, many young people may experience a considerable sense of loss, loneliness or depression.

This is according to the results of a two-part study conducted in 1983 and again on the same group of adolescents in 1987 by the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service and the Michigan State University Department of Family and Child Ecology.

According to Chris Nelson, 4-H family and child specialist, parents tend to focus on differences between siblings, which is an important part of identity formation, and they may forget about the closeness siblings feel for each other.

Nelson reports that only twenty-two percent of the subjects (who were between 10 and 14-year-olds) reported feeling close to their siblings in the 1983 study.

But in the 1987 study, seventy-five percent of these same youths (who were between 14 and 18) said that they feel close or very close to their brother and sisters.

"Over the teen years, kids can become very close as they become a support system and a network for each other," Nelson says. "They may provide some resources to each other than friends, or anyone else can."

Of those teens who said an older sibling had left home, more than two-thirds said they were "very affected" by the change. According to Nelson, this is notable because young people often don't recognize that things are stressful to them, even if they are.

Parents need to be aware that their children are facing a difficult period. Instead of focusing on how a child will get his or her own room or more parental time, parents can lead family discussions about a situation at dinner or during other family times.

"Each family member can contribute in the discussion of how they will feel about the change and what will be good and bad about it," Nelson says.

How can a parent tell that a child is disturbed about a sibling moving away? Some signs, like crying, will be obvious. Withdrawal, moodiness or other signs of depression before and after the sibling leaves are possible signs. Sleeping too long or any change in sleeping pattern can be a sign of depression in teens.

SERVICE

Michigan State University

Nelson suggests that talking will usually help ease stress and make the teen feel better about the situation. Professional help from a school or other counselor may be needed too.

"It's good for both siblings to maintain contact through letters, phone calls or a visit," Nelson says, "because both siblings are experiencing stressful changes and can help each other."

Parents also need to remember that the younger children are, the less likely they will be able to understand that their siblings are not gone completely from their lives. Talk about the situation and encourage children to write letters and make phone calls to help maintain a feeling of closeness.

Parents can help ease the stress brought on by an older sibling moving out by talking to, listening to and paying attention to their younger children.

Showtime Video Offers More Than 1,000 Movies

If a selection of over 1000 rental movies, discounted prices for members, and movies available for purchasing are not enough to bring the curious video customer into the Grayling Showtime Video store, the smell of their free theatre popcorn will.

Showtime Video, located at 208 Michigan Avenue, next door to Flowers by Josie, opened for business in October of 1986. The business was first located at 300 Cedar Street, but its owners decided to move Showtime Video to "main street Grayling" on September 16, 1987, to make shopping more convenient for their customers.

"We are pleased with the results of our new location," said April Stuck, Director of Marketing for Stuck's Inc., owners of Showtime Video. "Our customers are pleased, so we are pleased."

"We love Grayling," said April. "The people and the community have a unique spirit," she said. "Grayling is truly committed to making the community work."

Showtime Video is owned by Stuck's Inc., a family corporation, with their corporate office in Houghton Lake. Besides the Grayling Showtime Video business, the corporation owns and operates Showtime Video stores in Prudenville, and Houghton Lake. They also own and operate two Big Boy Restaurants in Houghton Lake and West Branch, a Taco Bell Restaurant in Mt. Pleasant, a Union 76 service station in West Branch, and this week the company is breaking ground for a new Taco Bell and Travel Center in West Branch. These businesses will be operational by the end of this year. The Travel Center is a large full service convenience center offering gas and groceries with one stop.

The Stuck family has been in business in the Houghton

Lake area since the early 1950's when April's father and her uncle opened Stuck's Furniture Store. In the 1960's the brothers added the Stuck's Mattress Factory. They sold the Furniture Store in 1977, and the brothers entered semi-retirement. Since that time April and her brother, Randy, and their cousins, Steve and Mike have operated the family business.

The mattress factory was closed, and the building was renovated. It now houses the Stuck's second Showtime Video store, opened in June of 1986, and the company's corporate office.

Showtime Video offers several special features for their customers. Besides the usual movie and player rentals, for a low life time fee, Showtime Video offers a video club membership. Membership privileges include discounts on both rental fees and movie purchase prices. Members also receive a periodic newsletter and valuable coupons.

The membership fees give Showtime Video purchasing power that enables the business to offer multiple copies and a wide selection of movies.

Because Stuck's Inc. operates three video stores, they are able to rotate their stock, keeping a fresh selection of movies at all locations.

Members and non-members will benefit by Showtime Video's color coordinated rating system which eliminates the need to search the movie box to find the movie's rating. Showtime Video has labeled with color-coded markings the ratings of each movie on the end of the box.

The staff of Showtime Video, who are encouraged to preview all movies, and can take any movie home free following the store's closing, are knowledgeable and can assist customers find entertainment suitable for their needs.

As a community service Showtime Video offers five video tapes on child safety and drug abuse free to anyone or any organization who wishes to borrow them.

The only identification required to rent movies and equipment is a drivers license.

The exciting news at Showtime Video this month is the impending release of the movie "E.T." "The most asked question of our business during the past three years," said April, "has been 'When is E.T. being released on tape?'" Up until very recently, April stated, our answer has always been "probably never", but now, on October 27, E.T. will be available for rent and for sale. Anyone wishing to do either is encouraged to stop by Showtime Video and ask a staff member to explain the three opportunities available to obtain E.T. Showtime Video will be renting, selling new copies, and selling month old copies of E.T. movies.

Showtime Video is open seven days a week, 364 days a year. The only day the business is not open is Christmas Day. Store hours are 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., except for the summer months from Memorial Day to Labor Day, when Showtime Video stays open until 10 p.m.

"The video business is fun," said April. "We are in the entertainment business," she said. "It is as close to the entertainment field as one gets, without living in Hollywood!"
